A photograph of a long, narrow hallway with a high ceiling. On both sides of the hallway are large windows with metal frames. The windows appear to be covered with a translucent material, possibly frosted glass or plastic, which allows some light to pass through but obscures the view outside. The floor is a dark, polished surface that reflects the light from the windows and the ceiling lights. The ceiling is dark and has several circular recessed lights. At the far end of the hallway, there is a brick wall and a dark doorway. The overall atmosphere is somewhat somber and institutional.

This year's SLOGAN theme of The Link is such an appropriate representation of what makes this Branksome community special. The genuine warmth and sense of connectedness is felt by everyone who spends time on the campus: students, parents, staff, alumnae and visitors. We are all linked by a deep and joyous school spirit that permeates everything we do. That spirit carries us through the challenges and demands of being a leading independent school. It makes our work and our play here not only worthwhile, but so fulfilling.

Through clubs, societies and sports teams, our students have many avenues to explore and develop shared interests and enthusiasm. Our school spirit spills across Mt. Pleasant Avenue to link the youngest girls to Middle and Senior School students as Big Sisters/Little Sisters, and of course as clan sisters. Our Residence students develop special bonds with each other and link our entire school community to many parts of the globe.

We are linked to a worldwide community of learners and leaders through our IB programs and the spirit of internationalism they foster. Our dozens of community service projects link us to such near neighbours as Rose Avenue Public School, Spruce Court and Church Street, and to friends as far away as the Sheela bal Bhavan residents in Jaipur, India and the QGAP School in Queenstown, South Africa.

Thank you to Mr. Smith and all the hard-working SLOGAN editors for capturing so beautifully the spirit of connection and community that is Branksome Hall. We are all linked by our devotion to this wonderful school.

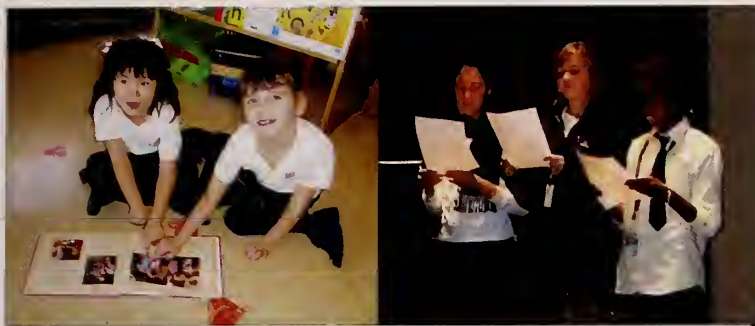

Mrs. Karen Murton
Principal

Principal's Message

Mrs. Karrie Weinstock Head of Middle & Senior School

It has been an exceptional year of achievement, challenge and fun at Branksome. I think back to Installation, that perfect fall day before Thanksgiving, when our community gathered to launch the new year and celebrate the continuity of our traditions. The leaders of the school were presented and the success of the year was predicted by the Head Girl when she spoke of the values that bind us and urged each student to lead the way and get involved "today not tomorrow". I have witnessed initiative, participation and leadership emerge across the student body and I am proud of every girl's accomplishments. The Slogan of 2006-2007 captures the individual and collective energy of our school. In it, we see reflected the highlights, activities and friendships of the year. Thank you to the Slogan staff - this is a yearbook that makes us proud.

Mrs. Nanci Smith Dean of Students & Residence

The 2006/2007 prefect motto, "Today, not tomorrow" characterizes the energy and enthusiasm of our school and our yearbook the SLOGAN records, highlights and commemorates our accomplishments. As you read through the pages of this year's book reflect on all that you achieved personally and what we achieved as a community. Be proud knowing that Branksome students have demonstrated innovation and determination to do their best creating a vibrant definition of student life. Understanding that the prefect motto meant for us all to get going and get involved, take a chance on trying something new, more girls than ever did just that. Record numbers of students committed to tutoring programmes and community outreach or created their own service initiative. Athletes placed well in the CISAA league and were strong competitors at a number of invitational tournaments and hundreds of students and faculty took advantage of the wonderful new fitness facility. As well, actors and musical groups dazzled us with their performances.

Embracing international mindedness students traveled taking the Branksome spirit with them to debating tournaments, public affairs conferences, exchanges and service projects.

A heartfelt thank you to the SLOGAN editors and staff for this wonderful book that is a record of the year for us all and a treasure for the 2007 graduates.

Mrs. Judy MacLellan Head of Junior School

The highlight for the Junior School community this year is our bright and beautiful new space. The new Atrium and Forum act as the village squares, where people gather for so many different occasions and purposes. From Welcome Back parties to Big Sister/Little Sister events, Exhibitions, presentations, bake sales, break out workgroups and friends chatting at recess these are places where we share learning, friendship and fun. Our Grade One students adore their new home on the second floor of Read acres and the Design and Technology Centre is constantly full of students of all ages working on the computers, building electrical gadgets, designing flight contraptions and constructing robotic creatures. We are fortunate to have such fabulous facilities to support the amazing things students and teachers do daily in the Junior School. But spaces are only as wonderful as the people who inhabit them. The bricks and mortar have been brought to life by the warm, caring and thoughtful children and adults of the Junior School. As we strive to be knowledgeable inquirers, open-minded risk-takers and reflective thinkers I have confidence that the Junior School community will work collaboratively and cooperatively to use their new "home" to the fullest.

2006-2007 Prefects

"today, not tomorrow"

Monique Miller - Head Girl

"Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate, Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure." -Marianne Williamson.

It has been an honor this year to be your Head Girl, as I accepted challenges, and lived with no regrets. This school has given me a lifetime of knowledge, and taught me valuable lessons I will never forget. Thank you to Student Council for helping the motto come to life, as we organized events, and had much fun "Today Not Tomorrow". Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Weinstock: your encouraging words, guidance and mentorship have kept me on the right path throughout the year. Thank you for everything. To Mrs. Murton, Ms. Bolté, Ms. Pais, Mrs. Dean, Ms. Resendes, Mrs. Narjes: thanks for keeping me in check. The prefects: Thank you for all the support. I feel privileged to have worked with you all this year. I love you. To the girls in red ties, we've stayed united through our challenges and successes, thank you for all the wonderful memories. Thank you Branksome, and good luck to all of next year's leaders. Never forget; you are powerful beyond measure. Adios, Monique

Jackie Frisch - Admissions

I have always loved giving tours of places that I am familiar with. However with Branksome, not only am I familiar with the school, but I am proud of this place that has given so much to me. With the school's small and close community, and vivacious atmosphere- there is never a dull moment. Another successful year of hosting prospective families has gone by, and I have a few thank-yous' that must be given out. Thank you to Mrs. Penny, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Firth, and Mrs. Bishop- I could not have survived without all of your support and guidance. You provided me with warmth and kindness and still kept me on top of things; it has truly been a pleasure going to your offices everyday and working with you. And to all of the Ambassadors! Thanks to you! You have been an amazing team and fabulous representatives of our school! Stay proud and confident of the school that you love.

Lastly, thanks to the 13 girls in red. From OB times, to hanging out in the room we have stuck together and meshed into one. I love you all. Branksome Hall, Thanks for a great year Jackie

Katie Dorian - Arts

ART: "the creation of beautiful or significant things"

I have done my best this year to make all drama, dance, art, music and writing at Branksome significant...I hope it was an Art.

The incredible enthusiasm from everyone towards all creative events this year...that is an Art. Arts Council was fabulously committed to making this year the best yet for Collages, massive arts appreciation festivals, and generally amazing...that is an Art.

I thank you all: participants, directors, coordinators, Council...this year Branksome has been your creative work, your effort, your imagination, your Art.

Best of luck to future beatniks, drama queens and musical prodigies.

- Katie

Andrea Teslia - Beta Kappa

I have had many good years on the Beta Kappa Council, but it was this year that took first place! From the Flare to the Rout, to Father-Daughter and the Formal and of course the Straw, I have never seen so many girls shakin' what their momma gave 'em! Always ones to keep boys on their toes, Branksome girls you are what made our dances so much fun this year! Of course these events would not have been possible without the help of a few individuals who were my beacons of hope in the dark, the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, the dove after the flood...you get the point. Mrs Pratt, you were an amazing mentor, always there to help me in any big or tiny way possible. Mrs Narjes, you officially are the go-to woman when you need information of some sort, I could not have prepared such statistically correct events without you! To my Beta Kappa Council and Mrs. Smith, you always had good ideas on the brain, thanks for all the support and good advice. Finally, to all my girls in red, I have no idea what I would have done without you, or "the room". Thanks for putting up with my grumpy, half asleep, on cold-medicine mornings. And yes, I know... "L" isn't for loser anymore... Andrea

Alison Pitfield - Clans

LONG LIVE CLANS! This year was an exceptional year for clans. There was an intense amount of spirit bubbling through the hallways every day. From the fabulous Clan lunches, to the intense intramurals, to Terry Fox aerobics, to Autumn Games-Halloween style, to the clan movie nights, the hilarious clan assemblies...the list goes on with all of the amazing things clans achieved this year. None of these events could have happened without the Chiefs- Catherine, Kate, Dalana, Ella, Paige, Lauren, Inta, and Jane I would have been lost without you. You girls kept the spirit going and you motivated me to be as crazy as I was. You were the 8 sisters in rainbow colors that I always wanted! Thanks to the Grade 8 and 11 reps, you were always enthusiastic about everything...including BB Squad! Last but not least, Mrs. Landon, you were a brilliant mentor. Your organization was inspiring. You kept me on track and were always there for me, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart. My goal from the beginning of the year was to make Clans dominate. I wanted every person to feel the clan spirit. Now looking back on the year of 06-07, my goal was accomplished. CLAN YOU FEEL THE LOVE? Because I'm positive that I CLAN.

Rachel Penny - Clubs/Societies/IB CAS

This year I have had the great opportunity to verify all the clichés that go along with Clubs and Societies. They really do "make Branksome what it is" and there really is "something out there for everyone". Anyone who has ever joined a club knows that they are definitely "a great way to make new friends" and "the best way to get involved in school life". All clichés aside, it has been a fantastic year for clubs and societies, with the student body taking the prefect motto of "Today, not tomorrow" to heart and joining different clubs and even starting new ones. A big thank you to all the wonderful heads of Clubs and Societies; all of your hard work amazes me. I'd also like to thank my fantastic mentor Ms. Colwell and all the rest of the prefects for being a great support team. Most of all, thank you to all the girls who took the plunge, tried something new, and made a difference in the life of the school. Keep on clubbing!!

Chloe Sullivan - Communications

The job description of the Communications prefect is a vast one. It entails being the answers, the all-knowing, the personification of 'loud'. With this portfolio comes the spotlight and its many challenges. Challenges such as organization, late nights, early mornings, inconvenient meetings and having to tell people, "don't shoot the messenger". Branksome Net becomes a life necessity, the administration becomes your second family and the adrenaline of standing in front of seven hundred people every Monday morning becomes an addiction that's hard to shake. If these challenges are met with unyielding ambition, unflappable determination and a thesaurus, it undoubtedly is a fulfilling adventure. My favorite definition of communication, besides 'social intercourse', is 'to pass on'. So to the next Communications prefect I pass on my challenges with these words of advice: Don't stand too close to the mic.

Robyn Blumberg - Community Service

Terry Fox Aerobics, Best Buddies, JUMP, Homework Club, Horizons, genocide awareness grub day, and beginning to "Adopt a Village" in Kenya, are only some of the community service projects that Branksome girls have participated in this year. Having an international event fundraiser for Q-Gap in South Africa and Sheela Bai Bhavan in India, continued building a necessary partnership with our global community. Through these projects, Branksome students and faculty have helped make a difference in the lives of others. Thank you for your contributions! Numerous people have helped make this portfolio possible at the school. Deeva - it was amazing working with you this year. We made a great team! Mrs. Rotherham - you always knew the answers, and your guidance allowed community service events to succeed. You are the role model mentor. CS Council - your dedication made these initiatives possible. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Weinstock - your support allowed ideas to translate into action. Teachers involved in any way - thank you for your help and organization. Prefects - your encouragement kept me going. To all Branksome girls - stay involved and love what you do. "Go confidently in the direction of your dreams. You must live the life you have imagined." - Henry David Thoreau

Deeva Green - Community Service

Branksome students and faculty are truly incredible people. The experience of traveling to Queenstown South Africa with Mrs. Weinstock taught me that with education and wealth comes responsibility. When I think of Branksome students and faculty members, I see a tightly knit community of learners and educators who are dedicated to sharing his or her education and opportunities to give back to the local and international communities. It makes me so proud to go to such a generous school and it makes my prefect job that much more enjoyable.

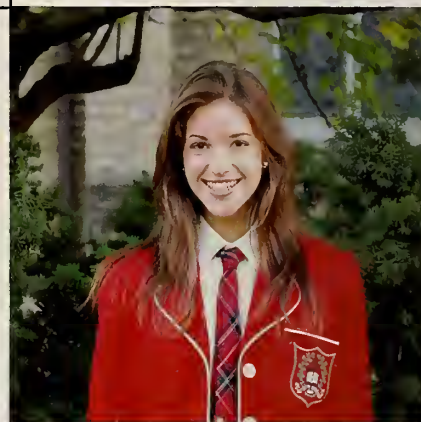

I believe that Branksome has accomplished their mission statement in creating an atmosphere with internationally minded students, all of which go far and beyond their curricular tasks. I would like to thank Mrs. Rotherham, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Weinstock and Mrs. Murton for their support in any community service endeavor. Moreover, I would like to thank the entire faculty, community service council and student body for helping make Branksome become a more environmentally friendly and socially conscious group of people.

Much love, Deeva

Zoë Share - Junior School

Ever since I left the Junior School, I jumped at every opportunity to go back. The Junior School is a breath of fresh air filled with colour, music, impressive schoolwork and the most amazing students and faculty. Branksome has always been a welcoming community with diverse range of people and activities. Being the Junior School Prefect was my chance to contribute to the special place that I have been a part of for 9 years. Mrs. MacLellan- your guidance and knowledge has been invaluable to me. Thank you to everyone- this year and any other-, who listened to my ideas, helped me shape them and watched as they came to life. To each girl in plaid- you inspire me. Embrace what life gives you- its challenges and victories. I can't wait to see what the future holds.

Best- Zoë

Katie Worndl - Middle Division

Middle Division has always been my favorite part of Branksome, and I couldn't have been more excited to be back with the 7's and 8's this year. Mid Divs...you've been awesome! I've never in my life met a more enthusiastic, creative and wild group of girls. From the Flare to Mid Div Movie Night, and even just wandering around the middle school, you girls have been fun and energetic in every aspect of school life. To the Our House Committee, Assemblies Committee and Grade 8 Clan Reps - thanks for so many great laughs. You girls were full of creative ideas and you made Mid Div life better than ever. BAS Reps, you've been amazing! Eliza, Morgan and Mini-Me - thanks for everything. You truly impressed me this year with your dedication and hard work. Mrs. Murray - Our House would not have been the same without you...see you at the cottage! Mrs. Bincik - I can't thank you enough for all of your help. You've been the best mentor I could have ever hoped for. And to the prefects - thanks for a great year. The letter 'L' has a whole new meaning to me. Even though it was my last year here, it was the best and one I will never forget! Mid Divs, you truly are uuuuuuntouchable!!! oxox Katie

Jamly Cheong - Residence

The Boarding School is more than 3 houses where girls live together; it's a place that 66 girls from all over the world call home. 4 years of my Residence life have finally come to an end. Here, I built friendships, learned to be independent, to respect, and to accept differences. Little things that we did together each day, like watching TV, cooking in the kitchen, having water fights, sneaking out in the middle of the night, have become precious memories that I will never forget. Ms. Smith, thank you for all the support and encouragement you have given me. Dons, thanks for the love, you were amazing Moms. My dear JDs, this year would never have been the same without you, thanks for your energy and enthusiasm, I was always proud of you. My fellow prefects, you were an awesome group, thanks for listening and helping me through hard times, you guys always made me smile~ At last, my Res Girls, I see you guys as my family, it was the 65 of you who made my year so memorable, and you will always hold a special place in my heart. Here, I want to tell you girls to be brave and to take risks. Believe me, time is going to pass by so fast before you even notice it.

Now, it's finally my time to leave this home, but watch out! Cox I'll be back ... Soon. Jam.

Emily Herczeg - Senior School

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has." -Margaret Mead.

People often say that Mondays are the worst day of the week, to have to get up after a weekend and get back to the books. But this year, I looked forward to Mondays as I knew that I would be having a fantastic meeting with Student Council or Student Life. The thoughtful, committed, girls on these two committees worked hard to promote positive change at Branksome. Through many discussions and planning events like Forums and Spirit Week, the vision and talent of the SC and SL reps shone through. Student Government reached new heights this year, and I am very proud to have been a part of it. A very special thank you to: Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Weinstock, for your guidance and support, to Ms. Narjes, Ms. Bolté, and Ms. Pais, for being invaluable sources of help and information, to Monique, for being my SC partner-in-crime, and to the prefects, for keeping me sane and laughing. To the girls who will carry on the Student Government pride: remember to speak up and voice your opinions, because you all have the power to make change. Stay passionate! Love and luck, xo Em

Leslie Malcolm - Sports Captain

o, the official score has been settled - Branksome Girls, 1... Everyone Else, 0. Sports at Branksome this year were taken up a notch. Whether on the court, the field, the water or in a gym Branksome's athletes have made the school proud. There was no kidding around with Branksome athletes, no matter who the competition was, the enthusiasm was raging. With Ribbit as the perma-fan, we took on teachers, girls and boys schools and sometimes even ourselves and let everyone know who was boss. A few particular high fives need to go out to a bunch of people that pulled me through. Firstly, to the Day Seven lunch crew - you girls could not have been a bigger help. Your innovation and willingness made every task we undertook much easier. Another shout out goes to all the scorers and timers. You took on the job with pride and energy- and saved my life thousands of times! Ms Landon - You made the best head coach and were a constant source of support and optimism. To the Prefs - we make an unstoppable team, thanks for the laughs. Thanks to everyone for a wonderful year, whether an athlete or a supporter you all got your game faces and kept our colours in the fight.

Parents' Association Representative

Charlotte Ryan

It has been a delight for me to be the Parents' Association Representative this year. It was not only a good learning experience, but also a way for the group to receive the students' perspective on school events and culture in general. The Parents' Association is essential because it allows parents to be more involved in the daily lives of their daughters at Branksome Hall. It never ceased to amaze me how many things we have to talk about. The Parents' Association is involved with everything from 'New Girl' events to construction updates on the new wing of the Junior School. It was a pleasure contributing to the Parents' Association, but none of it would have been possible without a number of people. I'd like to give a special thank you to Ms. Bandler and Mrs. Lau. Thank you also to the rest of the committee for always keeping me in the know and listening to my observations. Best of luck to the representative next year!

Alumnae Association Representative

Leah Semple

Being the school's student Alumnae Association Representative has given me a chance to see the large family that Branksome has developed over the years. Until I was given this position I had no idea how much Branksome's Alum were involved in the school. After attending monthly meetings with the Alumnae Committee, I have been able to see the many contributions that they make to Branksome and the Branksome Hall community. The Alum on the committee all graduated from Branksome in different years, but all of them are very interested in the current students. I look forward to sharing with them each month what the students are up to academic and co-curricular wise. From discussions with the alum, I have learned that many of Branksome's traditions and events that we have today, were happening at Branksome many years ago. I would like to thank Branksome for giving me this position that has allowed me to meet and spend time with the Alumnae to share and compare stories of our Branksome experiences. I hope that in years to come, Branksome has as dedicated a group of Alumae as they do today, and congratulations to next years Alumnae rep!

SADIA AHMED

Douglas, 2004-2007, Mrs. Hebdon
Congratulations.

RACHEL ALLISON

McLeod, 2005-2007, Ms. Uys

To Mum and Dad: You've been there for me every single time. I can't even try to say it all. Thanks for everything. To the siblings: Always loud and loving. To all my teachers: I used to think I was smart. Thanks for proving me wrong. To the ladies who for reasons beyond my understanding took IB: It's comforting to think that I'm not the only crazy out there. We laugh now about the late nights and the cram sessions, but it's probably from insanity. I believed we could do this! To all my friends: You put up with me and/or the baking. I'm glad I got to know you.

My Branksome experience has been interesting. I'm not sure what I expected. There have been ups and downs and I guess everything works out for the best in the end. As much as I hate to be predictable, please humour me: It's not just about having your cake and eating it too. It's about pouring over books to find the perfect recipe, buying the best ingredients, screwing up the recipe a couple times, finding guinea pigs... taste-testers... finally getting it right, and serving it with a cherry on top!

"Life is uncertain. Eat dessert first."

cheers

GENEVIEVE ANTONO

McLeod, 2005-2007, Ms. Friend

Mum, Dad, my greatest thanks for sending me to this "1010 de down square". It's been an amazing two years, and the lessons I've learnt are invaluable. Thank you for supporting my dreams all the way. I love you. Greg, I couldn't ask for a better, smarter, baby brother and best friend. Lorraine, sor por lora! I will miss screaming "OMG IT'S 8 WAKE UP" every other morning. I will miss you most. Mrs. Zommers, WOOHOO WORLD INDIVIDUAL PUBLIC SPEAKING AND DEBATING CHAMPIONSHIPS, SOUTH AFRICA 2007!!!! All the hard work paid off- thank you! Also, thanks to: my "friends" in admin/guidance- (Mrs Pratt, Mrs Bishop, Mrs Penny, Mrs Uys, Mrs Kenez.... the whole hallway actually), my wonderful teachers for their patience- haha, the Res girls (Sherbourne!!!), dons + Mrs Smith, plus MY DEBATING GIRLFRIENDS!!! <3 If I have missed you, know that I love you, will miss you, and that I completely blame the fact that I'm in SA and have 2 minutes to write this writeup before I have to run again. *With the vision to see, the faith to believe, the will to achieve... The Best is Yet to Be.*

WING MAN (LORRAINE) AU

McLeod, 2005-2007, Ms. Friend

I am finally graduating from high school and I can't wait for a new beginning! These two years have been precious to me and time spent at Branksome Hall will always be missed. I need to say a big THANK YOU to my parents for sending me to BH, giving me this whole new experience. Living in residence is definitely the highlight of my time here. All the running around, chatting, singing, laughing, playing, hugging... I'll always keep these memories with me dear to my heart. To everyone in residence, especially to my housemates: It's always fun and lovely spending time with you guys. I am going to miss you all for sure! THANK YOU to my councilor, all my dons, teachers (especially to Ms. Mistry) and classmates for your support, care and assistance. Special thanks to Gennie for being such an amazing roommate. It's always great to be with you and to share our thoughts and feelings together. "A child's life is like a piece of paper on which every passerby leaves a mark." Thank you to every single one of you who has left marks on mine.

To the class of 007: Say it loud—Congratulations!

NABILA AZAD

MacLean, 2004-2007, Ms. Knox

I cannot believe how fast these 3 years have passed. From walking the halls of BH for the first time, in '04, to giving a tour of BH in '07, much has changed. Abba, thanks for giving me everything I wanted and more. Amma, I can't thank you enough for staying with me these three years. I have no idea how I would have survived without you. Ishita, thanks for always giving me your "precious" advice, even though sometimes it might have seemed that it was unwanted. Samana, I really can't tell you how glad I am that you are here! You made Canada so much better for me, and I love you for that. Ingrid, we made it! Over the three years, we have both learned to love BH. I hope you get "extra time" for ever. Knocklemann, I am not the only one with a funny name you know, and I resent you for referring to me as Neville!!! Ioana, how am I gonna go on without hearing your LOUD laugh?! Navid, thanks for always being on MSN, so that I can drop my entire burden on you! Jessie and Clifford, honestly you made English bearable! I will miss our study dates, which were wasted on gossiping and coffee. "Wheresoever you go, go with all your heart" - Confucius. Cheers, Nabila

ROBYN BLUMBERG

Douglas, 2004-2007, Ms. Hebden

How is it possible to say goodbye to Branksome in 200 words? Here's to making it through IB (we did it ladies!), nights practicing in room 104, Saved by the Bell mornings, purple reign, grads of the 007, friends who were always there (Natalie—you are the sister I never had, cultural dinners, Billy Israel reunions), and South Africa 2006 (P.S. I love you girls...2010). To the teachers who listened to my many questions: you helped make my Branksome experience...thank you. Mrs. Zommers—You always believed in me. Thanks for guiding me along the way. Mom—You have been the friend I can talk to about anything. It will be difficult living without you next year (expect daily phone calls...sorry about the long distance bill in advance). Dad—You always supported my every move. Sorry about my bad mood every morning. Daniel—You have so much going for you. I know you will miss me next year. Love you all. Grads—"For what it's worth, it was worth all the while. It's something unpredictable, but in the end is right. I hope you had the time of your life"—GD. Branksome has been an adventure.

Peace and love—R. Blumberg

CHRISTINA BOTHWELL

Scott, 1995-2007, Ms. Stumborg

After 3 kilts, numerous ties and a few gym uniforms, who knew 13 yrs. could go by so fast? B.H. memories will 4ever be close to my heart: 2 hour walks to Summerhill in search of that delicious snack, sex&the city nights, & of course semi's/forms/routes. To the BH girls who make life a constant party, SE, NT, BT, PS, LM, KO, Maggie-my therapist, I know that wherever life takes us, you&I will always manage to find time for each other, thnx for all the advice and support! Eve-my advice giver&party partner, we have had too many fun memories to count, thnku for the endless chats and laughs! 2 the UCC boys&Havergal girls(esp. S.MAC!) thnx for all the fun! Nie-U have made the past 2years incredible, u will 4ever be important to me; thnx for all the Pad-Thai/Sushi & endless chats! Mom(Juanita)&Dad(Georgio)-Ur unconditional love, encouragement and cheesy jokes have been my guiding light, I love you both!! Julia-my mentor, what can I say? Your love&laughter has gotten me through everything, I know that time will only bring us closer!! Well GY, we've made it, Congrats! "Celebrate we will because life is short but sweet for certain" Cheers!

CARRIE BREGMAN

McLeod, 1995-2007, Mrs. Marshall

After a three-day stint at Metro Prep this year I realized how much I missed this place. Thank you Branksome for all of the incredible opportunities. The past 12 years have been filled with amazing memories and I still can't believe it's all over. Mom and Dad thank you so much for all of the love you've given me. Mom - you truly are amazing and you have been the best friend any girl can ask for. I love you more than you can imagine. Dad - thank you for all the support you've given me and for sharing sushi with me at the hockey games. Jacob, Marci and Sarah - I could never have made it anywhere without your love, guidance and laughter. And finally to the girls, you've made the past 4 years fly by and thank you for being there when I needed it most. I'll miss you all.

AVERY BRUENJES

Ross, 1996-2007, Mrs. Penny

To eleven years in plaid, and the people who've made them unforgettable, inside Branksome's halls and out: to Anderson nights, PC! Kensington and Queen. To alex&marissa jokes, whipped cream, and park-adventures. To leaning over and whispering...what?!, Yorkville rock and Ever After. To Wabi summers and leaving reality at the door. To PSYL'06 and living like you're planning on staying. Grads '07- I'll never see purple without thinking of you. Ms. Penny-From Day 1 (literally!) you've been there for me, endless gratitude. Teachers-thank you for your insights, debates, and tough love. Hugh-thanks for teaching me to frolic like a child, the heats on you now! Caroline-thanks to you I'll never settle for just plain good. You filled impossible shoes. Dad-Even I don't have the words. You'll always be my mentor, inspiration, and best friend. Who'll do my ponytail on the first day of uni? Mom-I love and miss you forever; I owe this tangent to you. "What is the feeling when you're driving away from people, and they recede on the plain till you see their specks dispersing? It's the too huge world vaulting us, and it's good-bye. But we lean forward to the next crazy venture beneath the skies". -Jack Kerouac

MARIELLE BRYCK

McLeod, 2003-2007, Ms. Pop

On my first day at Branksome three and a half years ago, my mother and I were both ready to burst into tears. I felt as though I was being led inside a secluded world in which I would never achieve my dreams. My mother knew of my anguish and felt guilty for forcing me through the hardest transition of my life. Now, in retrospect, I find it impossible to sum up these last rewarding and inspiring years at an institution bursting with opportunity and motivation. I have my parents to thank for their hard work in allowing me to attend a school which has given me so much, and for instilling in me my passion and excitement for learning which has defined me ever since my days at North Bridge House. What makes Branksome different from any other school I've attended is that no matter how ambitious, everyone here has always believed in me and my crazy dreams. That being said, I can only finish with the words of my very favourite Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.: "And so, even though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still have a dream."

BRIGID BURKE

Campbell, 2006-2007, Ms. Gambin
Congratulations.

ALLISON CARROLL-GOLDMAN

Douglas, 2001-2007, Ms. Hebdon

Six years ago, Branksome was so huge I thought I'd never learn my way around. Thank goodness it shrunk. Now, every hallway is familiar and filled with memories. Mme. Kolyanum's 'l'essentiel est invisible aux yeux', Mme Millette's cue cards, Mr. McVoy's infinitely reusable quotations, and Mrs. Watson's beauty... So many unforgettable moments have blurred to a whirl of crazy dancing on beds, concerts, bubble baths, 'yop', exhilarating and incriminating music, sleepovers, three-way calls, action hours, scrabble, subway trips, european train rides, mashu, risk... stairwell: its you who make it all so amazingly fun. you're who's unforgettable. Em: you are perfect, but still get zero. Dina: you are completely multi-purpose. Mei: show me what u got - and mazel tov, ps. Cait: you light my fire, and trevor loves you always. Lea: such a 'close friend', F: 'get out...' WC: I don't even know. this is hard... Mom: I'll love you forever, I'll like you for always, as long as I'm living. Dad: 'life is like a bowl of hobiocheh with a chunk of stuffed demouageoh hanging off the side.' -unfollingly insightful. guzer: good luck. I love you most. Thanks for everything.

Douglas, 2001-2002/2005-2007, Ms. Hebdon
It has been two strenuous, exhausting and ridiculously expensive years. Yet looking back on it time appears to have flown by with its many entertaining ups but also downs. So girls I believe a huge Congrats is in order because after 2 years of IB and Ontario we have made it and words cannot describe how relieved I am. Thanks to those to who took my angry fits at 3 am and made my life a little brighter in my darker moments. But its over now because.....
I B GRADUATING!!!

FAMILY CHEONG

I never though this day would come when I had to say "Goodbye" to Branksome. 4 years ago, I walked in those front doors as a shy and quiet girl. Today, I walk out the same doors with pride and confidence. Mom and Dad, thank you so much for giving me this great opportunity. Clara and Kary, I'm the luckiest girl to have 2 big sisters like you. 4 Sut Wun, I'll never be able to pee in da time Minute 0 Hour 0 midnight without u. Fung Gor, when r we hvln another kung fu fight at Eaton?? Ho Lai Ju, Poke...Wt is that?...Faint. Siu Wing E, even though I complained about u'r random silly songs ... I loved them. 4 Smelly Da, miss the movies nights. Loco KaKa Babe, u'r my favorite baby sis! Kalon, What?! U gon cry like a babe or u gon cry like a man? Jessie, Luh Byou! And for my dearest fds, Vanessa, 4 Ma La, Cherie, Adrienne, Andrea, Michelle ... U guys made my yrs filled with great memories, n u'll all hold a special part of my heart. And at last, CONGRADS!!! GYs of 007! Well ... I guess this is it Purple Branksomites, we finally made it! Jam

It's been twelve years, 67% of my life. I think I deserve the (somewhat-proud) right to say I'm a thorough-bred Branksome-er. To those who ever worried and took the time to care: I love you all, you know who you are (that includes my boys), Father And Mother I Love You - Now that's family. You've put up with more than a daughter could ever ask and we both know IOU "bigtime". Calvin - you know you'll always have me for backup. Spenny...caring is creepy, but you make it all worthwhile <3 From (multiple) McDees breakfasts to sharing a cust loft known as the GY Grad Room...Here's to the last year of biddies with their heads screwed on right...(but oh so wrong) It's been a greeeeeen trip...(007)<3

"The road to a friend's house is never long."

As I flip through photos and old agendas I realize just how much has happened over that last 4 years. All the moments that made this time an endless source of laughs. OWB-(d-m) snow prounces, journeys to Starbucks even in snowstorms, the split weeks (and the victorious purple power), the times we procrastinated and were ranting about how much we had to do at 3am, the Crazy Mays, and grad room times. To those girls who know me best there aren't words good enough to describe you, thanks for always being there. To the VB girls you made being at school at 7 worth while. Mom- thanks for being who u are, and being as crazy as I am (maybe more) u are my angel. Dad- thanks for "lecturing" me on the way to school I learned more than you think (even if I looked asleep) and for listening to me rant on the way home. I love you both more than anything. Thank you for all you've done. To the Grads of 007, the girls with unlimited spirit and energy, you are the true essence of the purple power. Congratulations!

ANJALI CURTOSI

McLeod, 2005-2007, Ms. Uys

Only two years have gone by since I first put on that plaid kilt and got to know the real history behind the colour purple. To my parents: I love you both so much (even if I don't always seem like it). If it weren't for all of your hard work and trust in me I wouldn't be where I am today. To my siblings: You guys have made me strong let me tell you. Having 6 siblings really keeps you on your toes. I Love you so much. To my friends: I don't know what I would do without you guys. From crazy school dances, to hanging out on spares, to going back to my hometown of Wasaga beach on the weekends every minute of GY has been amazing; my friends are the ones that I will remember most from high school. Through the good times, and the bad you've always been there. Although everyone is now going their separate ways the grads of 007 will forever be in my heart. "There's only us, there's only this. Forget regret or life is yours to miss" Love you all! xo

"Let us always meet each other with smiles, for the smile is the beginning of love." -Mother Teresa

To the girls of 007 who keep me smiling- these 12 years would've been empty without you. Growing from a little to a big sister, the friends I've made have truly defined my Branksome years. Lazy Fridays, 2am cramming, GY dance parties, and everything purple. Thanks for bringing the laughter, wiping the tears, and being my second family for 8 hours/day. To my teachers past & present- your wisdom and encouragement is greatly appreciated. Mom- you're filled with loving advice and ways of making me smile at anytime. Dad- from the premature math lessons and Canadian Tire trips; you continue to teach me. No words could ever express my gratitude, but for now it's thank you... I love you both. Shireen, David & Tiek- your footsteps have left an easy path for me, I think this baby has grown up now. And to my SA girls- who else could I say I've slept in the jungle with? See you in 2010. To the entire Branksome community- thank you for collaboratively helping me to pave this road. I will indeed keep it well. "After climbing a great hill, one only finds that there are many more hills to climb." - Nelson Mandela

CHLOE DANIELS

McLeod, 2003-2005, Ms. Pop

Branksome paved a road of possibilities and challenged me to keep it well. Both a blessing and a burden, this road has proved to be a winding one full of twists and turns, sometimes requiring a trek for hours and other times allowing you to coast on by. I will always remember the late night last minute essays, the early morning spirit week rehearsals, the best buddies lunchtimes and fulfilling my dream to see the Taj Mahal. The people I've met along the way, though, are what has truly made the journey unforgettable. My teachers, family and friends never failed to push me to take that extra step when the road got rocky. To the girls of 007, each of you is unique and extraordinary in your own way. Hopefully, somewhere along the road our paths will cross again. Good luck to you all and never forget... Life is one big road with lots of signs.

So when you riding through the ruts, don't you complicate your mind: Flee from hate, mischief and jealousy Don't bury your thoughts; put your vision to reality Wake up and live! -Bob Marley

ADRIA DAVIDSON

McLeod, 2001-2007, Mrs. Marshall

I can't merely comprehend how six wonderful years at Branksome have come and passed so incredibly quickly. From my first day in grade seven right up until graduation, I've collected an innumerable number of memories I'll always remember and treasure fondly for the rest of my life. To all my friends- Here's to all the icehouse moments and inside jokes that I always want to be able to laugh at and reminisce over: The HP fanclub, sleepover with Jessie and Mere- Mr. Bean and the plywood mattress, VH, car food fights, Chicago- "DADDY FELL IN THE POND!" & Ice cubes, Chinese New Year- too much food, Pittsburgh, sobbing over Titanic at Clifford's cottage, Classics Conferences, Durban Exchange with Cat and Ash- with so many great moments, Italy with Miss H, purple rein in spirit week 2006 and deciding our future (or at least our university). It's been quite the journey, but it certainly isn't the end (despite a previous yearbook comment) or even close! ^^ Mum, Dad and Dana, thanks for being there through all the madness: calculus breakdowns, late night insomnia, blow drying art at 2am and the occasional bout of procrastination. I'm really going to miss you next year. To all of the '07 graduates, congratulations we've made it through. (:

EMILY DEBONO

Douglas, 2001-2007, Ms. Hebdon

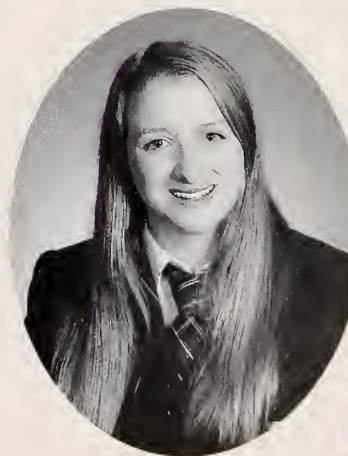

From the Summer of '41 to zaxy MUNs to CA @ S to Mr. McAllister's car Branksome is one of those places that, without my knowing the where and the how, will leave me forever changed. To a fabulous formal (with my high school sweethearts) to the guy who came to Dina's every Sunday, to Trevor, to JB jokes, to Pig's milk, to the BIG "dead fish," to Germany, to stealing So Good and yearbooks, I still don't know when there was time for all this to happen. Thank you to my teachers (surtout Mme Kalyanam) for teaching me to learn. Lea: Stop calling me while I'm asleep. Dina: In 25 years, let's meet at Danforth- wait, you'll be there anyway. Cat: You obsess with me/ you're my obsession. Frances: Where is Prince Later? Allie: Props for throwing the "Dead Fish" back into the sea. Mei: I'd help you stalk Jenny any day. SPEEPS: Thank you all- visit me AT HOME. I'll be crying in an eclectic dress. John, Laura, Mary, and Mark, I love you (and the Famjams). Mom and Dad: I'll move out when you turn 50, and you can move in when I turn 40. Good luck 007s!

JANE DEEKS

Campbell, 2001-2007, Ms. Gambin

"The page of girlhood had been turned, as by an unseen finger, and the page of womanhood was before her with all its charm and mystery, its pain and gladness." - L.M. Montgomery. Farewell CampPbell, the best is yet to come. So long vball/track/rowing/xc. I'll miss 10am Starbucks, after school slushies, buRger-shack dinners and late night T.H.o.s. Goodbye shopping excursions downtown (and beyond), Silver city nights, aBewatch and basement nights. Here's to Wabi camper/cit/staff summers! Stumbs/Gambin-thanks for listening. Sam and Stef- I'll look up to you, and you look out for me, ok? Mike- Only one with the same family we've seen it all. Jazz- you gave me confidence and fashion/ it meant more than you know. Dad- You make me believe I can be anything, and in the end I'd like to be you, xoxo. Mom- hero and best friend, the Jean to my Lionel. It's always been you and me, and that will never change. I admire, trust, and above all I love you. Branksome- in the midst of stress and uniforms I found laughter and originality. Keep well the road (but never cross it!) And 007 ladies.... I'll always wait you in my purple stew- meet you in the grad room.

JESSIE DENISON

Scott, 2001-2007, Ms. Stumborg

"In this great future, you can't forget your past" - Bob Marley ... and I won't. Grads, we made it. Thanks Mom and Papa D for your endless support and always letting my find me own way. Thanks Sophie for the laughs that never stopped. Thanks to all my teachers for caring - you made all the difference. And of course, thanks to all the 007 girls who helped me through these 6 years. The Goof, EUT, soccer, techno beats, the awkward stage, cottages, track, movie nights, bonding, hockey, spares, grad trip, picture day, baseball, grade parties, impossible classes, TIC, theme dances, rugby; we've been through it all together. Bonding at Le President with Fatty was a blast. Mommy (aka Kalon) - thanks for taking care of me. All my Tica sisters - "don't worry, be happy". Pura Vida. All my Res girls - ahyyy ... thanks for everything. To all my friends - it wouldn't have been the same without you, but it's not over yet. Thanks for all the great memories I'm leaving with. I loved every minute of it.

GEORGIA DESJARDINS

Campbell, 2002-2007, Ms. Gombin

Here go 5 unforgettable years. To all my friends-you guys know who you are...You're all amazing and I love you! Steph-you're pretty much my other half...so, so many good times. Katie, Em, Jessie and Info... you guys are always by my side, and always make me happy. To Tyler -thanks for always being by my side, to badminton friends-you guys are like my second family. To Leah and Bree, my loves...This is only the beginning! And finally to my family-Mom and Dad- Thank you for everything...for being by my side when I really needed you, for inspiring me to always work hard to reach my goals, and for being proud of me for anything I accomplish. Jemie and Joss- you've both been so...perfect...And such good role models for the future. And of course Jules...I don't know what I would have done without you. Thanks for all the phone calls. To Bronksome-it really has been one unforgettable adventure. I don't know what the future holds, but I've never been more excited to find out. GY's, we've made it! Good luck with your futures but always remember our amazing post. I love you all.

SARAH DIAMOND

McLeod, 2003-2007, Ms. Pop

Bronksome, it has been a quick road full of memories and experiences that will stay with me forever. Girls in ploid who I've met through the arts, clubs, and sports, who I've joked with in class, and simply hung in the halls (and stressed) with- thanks for the incredible times. You've all inspired and shaped my past four years. Cot/ Mer- thanks for putting up with my endless chemistry questions. XC- an awesome group to see at 7am, I will miss our laughs. South Africa group- a simply incredible experience. Girls, you're all going far. Thanks to the teachers who have taught me more than can be found in textbooks and for giving me confidence. Ms. Stumborg, thanks for your guidance and advice. Mom and Dad, thanks for your love, support, and the opportunities you have given me- I will love you forever. Jonathan, thanks for the runs. I look up to and learn from you more than you can imagine. Gobe, you really are one cool guy. Thanks for teaching me how to "live a little." Grads of the 007: Take what Bronksome has given you and live the life you've dreamed. Keep well the road and all the best, "There is nothing like returning to a place that remains unchanged to find the ways in which you yourself have altered" - Nelson Mandela.

KATHLEEN DORIAN

Scott, 2001-2007, Ms. Stumborg

I started in Grade Seven,
In this school I felt so small,
Yet it ended up this would be my home;
The world of Bronksome Hall.

Thanks to all my mentors,
My teachers and my friends.
I never thought this day would come,
That my time here had to end.

To those who have kept me company on the way to making my road well; you know who you are. Mum and Dad- thanks for bearing with me. David- forever my partner in crime and bad jokes. BH- thanks for introducing me to kites, clons, rowing and- ultimately- me. Take the road less traveled; it's more fun that way. xx

ALEXANDRA DOUGLAS

Douglas, 1993-2007, Ms. Hebdon

Ta say I will always remember my years of Bronks is on understatement... and a kinda big one...considering it's been 14 years, and I don't remember anything before it, anyways. Represent survivors! I went into the BH machine o shy, elastic-tie wearing toddler and I'm coming out an almost-adult ready for the world. To all my wise and caring teachers (Waad, Pop, Proctor, Antog,) thank you for the challenges; don't think your rid of me yet. Cheers to memories, formals, semis, costumes, dancing, music, petatones, perogies, Nintendo, spores, cruising, Starbucks runs in -40 wind chills...in bare legs...and the general INSANITY that makes us 07's so far. Power to the purple. "SA" forever! to the other half of the dynamic duo (Steph, abvi)- we'll kick back in the Home Land someday soon, and it'll be lekker. Dita- thonyou for lote night boke sess& keeping my school "piles" in order. Mommy+Daddy -thank you for the support, freedom, laughs, & love, and among many lessons thank you for teaching me that there's no map I have to follow through life's journey (its not like could read it, onyways...or get there an time). I love you all too much to say. My pre-BH 4 yr. old self would tell you that you were making the right choice. Love and best wishes to all the amazing girls of the 007, hope to see you soon!

VICKY DUONG

McLeod, 2003-2007, Ms. Pop

I couldn't possibly see myself in any other school but Branksome. The experience has been amazing. Mommy: Thank you for providing me with this opportunity to attend this school. Daddy: You always seem to make me laugh. Your silliness cheers me up in a matter of seconds. Kevin: You might be taller than me but you'll forever be my baby brother. I got yo back. Lydia: Thanks for appreciating my pronunciation. Clovers when we're 18 - what? Bear: From the days of remy to tenyobs and zepbas. I'll miss you in the dryer. The SLOGAN team: The countless hours, late nights and cheese pizzas have finally paid off. Thanks for an amazing year(Book). Grads 007: I'll forever be your Barney. peace and love, v. dizzle

HAYLEY EDWARDS

Douglas, 2003-2005, Ms. Hebdon

Thank you Branksome for giving me so many opportunities, and shaping me into the individual I am today. Thank you to my teachers, family and friends for all your support. Cassy and Sophia, I couldn't have done it without you two. You are amazing friends, and I love you so much. Thank you for your advice, amazing memories and all the laughs!! You mean so much to me. My four years at Branksome have gone by so quickly, and will be unforgettable. Thank you everyone and good luck!

SARAH EHSANI-ARMAKI

McAlpine, 1995-2007, Ms. Olfert

It's been twelve years that seem to have just flashed before my eyes; I can't believe it's over. I'll never forget my time at Branksome, it's been my second home (literally!). I'll look back with fond memories of my friends, who motivated me, made me laugh and cry, the teachers who taught me beyond the curriculum, and the endless number of life-changing experiences. Mommy, I love you so much. Thank you for always being the sweet, loving, and inspiring woman you are. I'm so grateful for all the support you've given me, and for all your hard work. You are my best friend. Daddy, you are the hardest working person I know. You motivate me to be the best I can be, I love you. Thank you both for working so hard to get me here, believing in me, and most importantly your endless love. Mer, we may not see each other for ages but we never seem to miss a beat. Our friendship is a never-ending conversation. James, nucleus. It explains it all, love you. To my friends, you know who you are; I've got nothing but love for you. To my wonderful IBers, we made it! Grads of 007, purple reigns!

SARAH ELHARRAR

McLeod, 2005-2007, Ms. Uys

So it's finally over and as much as I like to deny it, I'm going to miss this place. Mom, Dad, without you, I would not be half the person I am now. You gave me so much and I cannot thank you enough. I hope that the person I become is a reflection of the people you are, of your values, your modesty, and your intelligence. Michael, you are the coolest brother a girl could ask for. Make us proud; I know u will. C.B., E.K., M.M., N.T., B.T., E.B., thanks for showing me that it is the people you are with and not the city you are in that makes the days and nights amazing. Carol, you are my sister in every way; I've missed you so much. I wish we could have ended this chapter of our lives together, but even through the distance, you were still there. And finally, to my wild family in Montreal, if it were not for all of you I would not be half as strong or half as crazy. Merci pour tout l'amour que vous m'avez donné - je vous adore. Class of 07, I'll see you when we're all rich and famous, Sarah.

SOPHIA FARIA

McLeod, 2004-2007, Mrs. Marshall

"The great thing in this world is not so much where you stand, as in what direction you are moving." I couldn't understand this quote if it hadn't been for the following people: Mommy and Daddy: I am grateful for your immeasurable generosity and help. You have taught me well and I love you both dearly. Fabio: You're great and intelligent and I won't forget our times together. Elizabeth: I know you will be successful in high school and I know we will still stay as close as we are. Lizzal: You're family too! Our times together are the best. Every season we get original and no one can comprehend how entertaining we are to one another. Ali Ivey: You are my comedic relief in life. You have also opened my mind and appreciation to so many things. I know your name will be everywhere! Natalka: I need to mention you and words still cannot describe what you mean to me. Mrs. Stumborg: I don't think anyone understands my journey through high school like you do. You have helped me too many times with too many things. Teachers, Staff, Friends and Family- I thank you for EVERYTHING!

STEPHANIE FAUQUIER

MacLeon, 2004-2007, Mrs. Knox

Congratulations we lived it, survived it and now its graduation. Many thanks to everyone at Branksome for making my three years unbelievable, which I will always remember. G, K, E, J, I thanks for all the good times, great memories and big laughs. K and E thanks for always being there and listening to me rant, rave and laugh. I love you guys! G..wow thanks for all the those good times...clearly too many to name. I will miss you next year! Mom and dad, the best parents I could possibly ask for. You have supported me and encouraged me to succeed and always do my best. I love you and thank you for giving me the Branksome experience. You have taught me to be strong, courageous, optimistic and independent. Claire, you have been the best big sister, friend and role model in my life. You are an inspiration and constant reminder that I can achieve anything I put my mind to. I look up to you and respect the wisdom and experiences you pass on. To all the girls in GY thanks for making BH an amazing place, I will never forget you.

EMILY FLEMING

Ross, 2001-2007, Mrs. Penny

What can I say? It's been a wild 6 years and I still feel like I'm the same kid who sang the Jamaican national anthem for Ms Meyer and our advisor. But, its time for me to move on and go make a fool of myself somewhere else. MOM: its been just us for awhile now...and I know I make it hard sometimes, but thank you. I didn't need anyone else but you. I love you (to the moon and back.) BOYS: once we got past the beating stage of our relationship everything came together; you both are the reason I can make people laugh. MY GIRLS: we really do have issues (dares anyone?)...but always remember FGHMf and eryting will be ok. We ride together, we die together: bad gyals fi life. Don't ever stop dancing ladies. From konye spirit weeks to grad room jamming to holiday hombres - grads 007 we will live on! Don't ever stop, just push until you hit the top, and if you try, at least you know you gave your all, be true to you, and that way you can never fall ... be true to you, believe that there is no one bigger" - Tupac Shakur

IOANA FREISE

Don't forget bio with Mr. Mindorff. Lorraine, Ingrid, Katja: The best English class in my life! I love you so much! And thanks to Ms. Mistry we had the best IB1 year together. The Tennants: Thank you for the wonderful time and the large cold wet vegetable carving. I will miss you a lot!!!! The Penny Family: Thank you for everything!!!!

IB people YOU ROCK!!!!!!

JACQUELINE FRISCH

Scott, 1996-2007, Ms. Stumborg
Branksome- here's to you! I owe many thanks not only to the school for watching me grow up, but also to every teacher who has helped me along the way. Mr. McVay- thank you for keeping me stimulated. Mrs. Watson- you are my teacher, my mentor, my friend. Ms. Stumborg, thank you for the compassion and understanding that you brought to our discussions. To all my friends- thank you for being there! Char, you have always brought laughter and excitement to the friendship I so cherish. Ali, Ella, Andrea, Sarah, Dani, Jess, Leah, Lisa- thanks for all the memories. To my brothers: Matthew, I'm embraced by your wit and charm. Eric, your endless supply of creativity has inspired me. Thank you both for always believing in me. To my sister: Lauren, you turn my tears into laughter and my frowns into smiles. Thanks for living in my shadow. I've enjoyed every minute of the company. Mom and Dad- I love you so much. You are my everything- my parents, my best friends, my confidantes, my role models. I admire everything you do for me, and I thank you for standing in my corner- I really needed you to be there. Well girls of '89, we've finally made it here. Keep it classy.

"All the peace, wisdom, and joy in the universe are already within us; we don't have to gain, develop, or attain them. We're like a child standing in a beautiful park with his eyes shut tight. We don't need to imagine trees, flowers and sky; we merely need to open our eyes and realize what is already here, who we really are". I want to thank all those who have helped me to succeed over my years at Branksome. You have helped me to open my eyes.

LISA GALT

McLeod, 2001-2007, Mrs. Marshall
"Every song comes to an end, but it doesn't mean you can't enjoy the music". O.T.H. I look upon the future with optimism, drive and passion, 3 qualities I have developed during 6 years at Branksome. Dance has always been my passion-find yours and you'll always find a way 2 be inspired. Ms. Friend; in & out of class, I loved learning & working beside you. Ms. Stumborg; my BH experience wouldn't have been the same without you. Ms. Weinstock; I'll never forget the laughs, cries & stories in South Africa; an experience of a lifetime shared w/ 8 unique, incredible girls. M&D; your infinite love & support is more than I can ask for. Thank you for trusting me & letting me fly. I love you. Kiffer- No one could ask 4 a better brother & friend. Sisterhood= constant love & laughs. Grads of 007- talks, lunches, spares, but most of all ur presence in the halls of high school has meant someone always there 2 hug, talk 2, cry w/, laugh w/, share w/ & walk the cold walks to Bloor w/. Late nights, Grad room, parties, road trips, Muskoka, C-wood, Dominican, spirit weeks, formals, endless adventures. We've been through it all & I'll never forget. So, 2 all my Brankle girls who've worked hard, and partied harder, WE DID IT!

JENNIFER GEMMELL

Ross, 1995-2007, Mrs. Penny
I can hardly believe it- 12 years at Branksome have come to an end. Thanks to all of the great teachers and thanks to the wonderful staff who have helped me over the years. To all of my Branksome friends, thanks for the memories. Thanks to my family. Laura- I'll miss you greatly next year and keep on bringing home the trophies! Mom- I love you and thanks for all of your support and guidance over the years in squash and school! Dad- Thanks for getting me to school on time and thanks for all of your love and support! I can't wait to follow in your footsteps at Cornell next year! Congrats to the class of 2007 and good luck in university.

STEPHANIE GOBIN

McLeod, 2001-2007, Mrs. Marshall

What can I say? The last 6 years have been the best of my life. Spirit week, dance parties in the grad room and fantastic girls to share it with: what more could a girl ask for? Parents: thank you for the on-going love, the support and the sacrifices you have made for me. Jonny: you're a pain in the rump sometimes, but believe it or not, I'm going to miss you. Lin: I honestly don't know what I am going to do without you next year, that's the thing, for real tho, with a ph. I love every one of you with all my heart. Gvals Dem, the original FGHMF: you mean more to me than you could ever know: through the ups and downs, laughter and tears, McDonalds and Starbucks: you were always there. I love you and will miss you all more than I could ever express in words. Grads of the 007: it's been great. Let purple reign forever.

MacLean, 2001-2007, Ms. Knox

Everyone asks me why on earth I go to school downtown when I live in Richmond Hill. Truth is, Branksome is worth spending 2 to 3 hours a day on the Viva/ITC. To all my fellow lbers, we made the right choice. To the HL math class, we're still alive! (thank you Ms. Proctor). Teachers, you continuously inspired me. Madame, vous m'avez enseigné plus que le français. To my stairwell peeps, just remember to Mind the Gap. I'll always remember the big adventures Mei, all 56 chapters of them. Em, I'm sorry you failed to unsketchify me. Cait, thanks for entwining me in your love, Frances for your sturdy shoulder, and Lea for always bringing the party. Allie, let's not stop counting at 10 years of friendship. Merik and Jihana, the limes were sweet. Wendall, it was a friendly gaze in disguise. Joe, thanks for showing me it exists. Spasibo Mama and Papa for everything. I wouldn't want to be anyone else's Kasha. Julia, being half my age just means you have longer to stay young. Finally, to the graduates of 2007, never forget the PURPLE REIGN.

DEEVA GREEN

MacGregor, 1999-2007, Ms. Campbell-Rogers

A bittersweet departure marks the end of eight years in plaid. A dynamic combination of intellectual, intelligent, creative, and talented students makeup the graduating year of 2007. A faculty who truly cares about the students' achievements and improvements reveals the immeasurable support from Branksome. It's been inspirational teachers like Ms. Wynne-Jones, Mrs. Zommers, Mme Kalyanam, Mrs. Malcolm, Mrs. Fabian, Ms. Campbell-Rogers and Mr. Douglas who have encouraged my love of learning. The Branksome Community - specifically Ms. Stumborg and Mrs. Weinstock - have revealed a wealth of opportunities that have taught me, most importantly, how to learn outside the classroom. From a fascinating Japanese exchange to a remarkable trip to South Africa, I have learned the importance of diversity and tolerance, and have realized my responsibility to give back to the global community. Most importantly, my parents have produced a home life for me that has been nothing short of perfect. The unconditional support and love from my Mom, Dad, Sophie and Anthony have created such a strong foundation - an incubus for lifetime happiness - from which I have experienced the essential elements of an ideal upbringing. And for all this, I thank Branksome teachers, fellow students and foremost, my family.

"The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams." - Eleanor Roosevelt. Dreams encourage us, surround us and define us. Here's to Branksome, for giving us the tools to help make our dreams, realities. Until this moment, I never fathomed how difficult it was going to be to let go: CL, LR, JL and my other beautiful ladies in red: thanks for the STARBUCKS runs, the heart-to-hearts, and most importantly, for your shoulders to lean on. AM - CHONSP - one of the greatest friends I've ever had. SEA - my constant support; my source of laughter, my RHS sister 4 life - I'll always be here for you. My Costa Rica 'dahlings' - my heart not only went to CR, but to each of you as well. My teachers: I am honoured to have learned from such incredible human beings. Jolie - my ally, "Big bear" and daddy: "I love you more than the number of grains of sand that are on this earth." Thank you for your generosity, your compassion, your support and your wit. I am so lucky to have you for parents. "At first, dreams seem impossible, then improbable, and eventually inevitable." - Christopher Reeve. A-MA-ZING!

FRANCES HANDLEY-DERRY

MacLean, 2001-2007, Ms. Knox

At the end of this year, I will have spent 6 years of my life at Branksome; it seems so strange that I will not be coming back next year. I will never forget my years at Branksome, filled with some of the best memories of my life. To my friends that have done the journey with me, I love you all! Lina, I'll always remember your smile throughout the years, yours too Alle, my Gles school buddies. No one has a sense of humor like you, Mei, Cait, I promise to visit. Lea, I'll always have a special place in my heart for you and Germany. Em, there are so many memories, I can't pick just one. To all my teachers, thank you for what you have taught me during my years here. Ms. Olfert, thank you for all the support you have given me, and for helping me to fill my life with music. May you keep the choir strong. Katie, Siobhan and Elizabeth, thank you for always letting me use the computer when I needed it, and for all the sisterly love. Daddy and Mommy, I love you both so much.

To my fellow graduates: good luck!

EMILY HERCZEG

Scott, 2001-2007, Ms. Stumborg

I find it so typical of myself that I once again, have too much to say. So for the first time in my Branksome career, I'll try not to say too much. Here's a huge thank you to all of the people who make Branksome what it is—who have put new words in my mouth, ideas in my head, and perspective in my eyes. To the girls in plaid who were there every step of the way—thanks for all of the hugs, the laughs, and the memories. To the posse—thanks for showing me what friendship is truly about. To my S. A. girls and GBC summer sisters, thanks for the bonds that are easy to appreciate and hard to break. To my teachers, thanks for encouraging me to challenge myself. To Miss Friend and Mrs. Weinstock—you have been an inspiration. Julie—I value our friendship more than anything. You have no idea how much I have learned from you. To Mum and Dad—you know me better than I know myself. Your love and support have meant more to me than you will ever know. I love the three of you so much.

Luck and love... "May the trail that you follow go winding high..." xo em

MacDonald/Campbell, 1995-2001, Ms. Gambin

Mum: You work harder than anyone, and I forget to tell you how much I appreciate it. Thanks for giving it 100% and supporting me through my decisions. Dad: You are the smartest person I have ever met and always have an opinion that I value. Thank you for the opportunities you have given me. Mike: I'm not sure if I can survive without you. You are the best brother and I hope we stay as close as we are now. Fia: Without you I would not have made it through the past couple years. You are my second half. Chlo-Chlo Puffs: 12 years and still hanging on. You are the most grounded person I know, and for that I admire you. Andres: My etobs, girl for life, so many car rides that will last forever. Jen: I have always been able to count on you, you give my life 'zing'. If I was to call anyone a sister, it would be you. Teachers: Thank you for putting up with me...seriously. Branksome and my GYs: "Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened." I love you all.

"Time flies but memory stays." I cannot believe I'm already GY, which means this is the last year for me to wear school uniforms. I will definitely miss my school life in SSGC and BH. These 2 years of experience at Branksome and in Res are memorable to me. It makes me refuse to grow up! "The most beautiful discovery true friends make is that they can grow separately without growing apart." One thing that I regret in BH is I cannot make a lot of friends, although I want to be friends with most of the schoolmates, it's mostly because I'm quiet all the time. However, I will never forget my friends in Res. Sorry for making all of you suffer from my bad attitude when I was depressed. Thanks for all the happiest and craziest moments that you guys gave me. Keep in touch! Congratulations to the CLASS of 2007! Good luck in freshman year!

With love, V/v.

In the spring of 2005, I was struggling with which school in Canada to attend, where should I spend the last two years of my high school life. The next spring, I started to think about my future and tried to decide which universities interested me. The spring after that is now and it is time to see what I have achieved! These two years have passed incredibly fast! It seems like the first day I arrived at Branksome was only one long, long dream from last night. This sweet dream was mixed with some nightmares, laughter and tears. I have changed and grown up, gone through lots of tasks and challenges. Of course I could never have done any of this without the help of others.

To my teachers, thank you for all of your efforts in bringing me a step further in my educational life. What you have put out is highly appreciated.

To my parents, thank you for your love, care, and the regular phone calls. I miss the food that mommy cooks so much!

To my friends, I will never forget all of the happiness and the sadness we have been through together. Best wishes to you all, in getting whatever it is you desire!

Over the past 12 years, I've been through that awkward stage, changed hair colours and grown a couple feet taller. Branksome has changed a bunch since grade 1, but I wouldn't change a thing. Cheers to my friends: without you I wouldn't have survived the past 12 years. You were never more than a phone call or a holler away. I've spent the best times with you in parks and basements and I know this is nowhere near the end. Chieftains: I can feel the love and it's just amazing. G and Ms. O: thank you for sharing your passion with me, cutting me some slack and being my ultimate vent team. Teachers: thanks for being flexible, and helping me get to where I want to be. Mom: for none you're my best friend and the biggest cheerleader I'll ever know. Dad: thanks for listening and trying to understand; you've done good. Ash and Meg: sisterly bonds don't begin to cover it; thanks for kicking me in the butt. GY's: we're closer than words. I would never change a thing; you're the best ones to party with. It may be over, but I'm so not forgetting this one.

Branksome has been a challenge and I am proud to be graduating. I never thought I would make it through these 10 years! Thank you Ms. Antognetti for encouraging me and giving me confidence in art. Sophia, you have been my neighbor, best friend and support system. You rule. Andrea, you are an amazing best friend-our weirdness works off one another to create the ultimate good time. I can't imagine high school without you. I love you dearly. Deevo, you are my sister and my other half. You and your family have been incredible to me over the years. I will never forget our times spent together. We will still be finishing each other's sentences in 20 years. Sam and Will, you are my best friends as well as 2 of the funniest people I have ever met- I would be nowhere without you. Finally, I would like to thank my parents. You have been so supportive and have provided such a wonderful life for me. I love you both so much and appreciate everything that you have done. Love and Luck to everyone, CHEERS!!!!

Another story told before/Now it's told again/Oh, the circle never ends/So you know that I'll be coming home - John Legend. BH has been a home for the past four years. Although it does not seem like even one day has past. There is no way that this, my GY year, is a reality. As I sit, James Blunt my muse and I think over my time spent in a sea of green that is Branksome Hall. From the cram sessions, singing in the grad room, to bonding chats it does not seem right that a year from now I will be separated from my backbones. Mom: you have always been there for me. I don't know what I'll do not seeing you everyday next year. I Love You Dad: you know how to make me smile, I Love You. Jordan, brother of mine, keep the good times rolling. My Sistas: I love you all so much. All the good times, I thank you for. I would never have laughed so loud or cried so hard. GY-007: I don't even know where to start. I&#9829;U all. From your spirit, to the singing jams. Purple Reigns forever! Miss you already, xoxo.

...soooo, its hard to find the words to express what the past two years meant to me...Branksome has truly changed my life forever. IB was a true challenge but worth it. Thanks to all the other IB folks I managed to survive. You truly motivated me, especially RB, JF, IF, NT (THIMUN!!!! best time ever!!) SE...basically everybody!...Special thanks to my lovely English group (Mistries Army haha...fun times): Alvarez (:P), Yoyo (Humus), Lorraine (...ngaaaaa), and also a big hug to Neville haha....(u know who you are). And now REZZZZZ....what would I be doing without you?!? My home away from home. It truly is!! Rez was the best of all my Branksome experience. Janet: my caring mama I luv u. Sister Lee: my party girl, Yoyo: du wirst mir fehlen, Mosien, JHo: langweilig or ...leanglichen, and just everybody! I luv uuuuuu!!! I will miss you sooo much!!! And now Mommy and Daddy: Danke das ihr mir das hier alles ermöglicht habt! Ich weis gar nicht wie ich das alles je zurueckzahlen kann! Dank euch bin ich jetzt wo ich bin! Danke auch fuer meine wunderbare Kindheit, sie hätte nicht besser sein können. Ich liebe euch!

Four years have passed since I first came to Branksome Hall and all I can really say is thanks. Thanks to my friends, to my family, and to my teachers. Maggie - how to sum up six years? From S.Challenges to Starbucks Sundays it's been quite a ride - you will always be my best friend. Christina, drives home, dance parties, Summer Hill runs - high school wouldn't have been complete without them. Naomi and Sarah: we made it! Roph: I can't imagine what the last two years would have been like without you. Thanks for everything. Clare(bear) you have made life of 310 Inglewood fun and full of surprises. I will miss you so much next year. Dad, you have supported and inspired my aspirations. Finally Mom, you have provided me with the best role model I could have asked for and I will never forget the advice you have given me.

I guess this is good bye Branksome Hall.
I will never forget it.

MEILENE LAM

In my twelve years at Branksome, I have celebrated many milestones with the same women I built farts with in the junior school or with whom I painted body parts purple. I've watched their birthdays turn into bat mitzvahs, then into sweet sixteens, and even sweeter seventeens, all to culminate in a Graduation. It is these same women whose weddings, promations and baby showers I hope to laugh, cry and get inappropriately drunk at when I "mature" into adulthood. Here's to parents, who deny overpaying and inspire the best; to those who advised: Mauffah, Ratherham, Practor, the Sac.Sci. Dept. et Madame (qui je ne pourrais jamais remercier pour m'avoir enseignée mes mats); to nice Indian boys and Julia; to Allie, whose lizard birth is the one I am most looking forward to; to Frances, who pat my beard; here's to Charles; to Germany and Trinidad (but never Tabago), for my favaurite émigrés: Lea, Merrik and Jihana; to Cait's genuine sweetness, quating and obsessive baking; to Dina, who minded the gap and partnered me in crime; to Emily, who was the high rall to my law; to laving Off the Wall Racing and finally, to us, the Grads, let this nat be our final celebration together.

As I try to sum up 12 years of Branksame in 200 words many things came to mind. From knee-length kilts to red ties, from teddybear picnics to spirit weeks, from the playground to the grad room, it's been an adventure. What truly stands out though are the people I shared these years with. Mammy&Daddy: thanks for everything, for always believing in me and for supporting me in everything that I do, I love you. Zach&Ty: you sure keep things interesting at home. Teachers: thanks for your patience&support, Hache, thanks to you especially, for the laughs, stories&all you've taught me, your impact on these years will always be remembered, &stunjab's saurpach? My friends: whether in a park, a basement, Starbucks, a party, hanging out, dancing, or singing in the car, we always managed to have an amazing time. Thanks for when we'd laugh until we'd cry and couldn't breathe, for the never ending chats, for always being there, and for bringing out the best in me. You girls are my life, definitely couldn't have survived highschool without you&don't know what I'll do without all of you next year, love you all. Last but not least, To all my grads of the 007: This is it! I couldn't have dreamed of a more amazing (or spirited) grade! Love you girls and I'll miss you ridiculously!!! Ciao xox

JING LI

McLead, 2005-2007, Ms. Friend

I still remember two years ago when I first arrived at this country. I looked around and asked myself how should I get started. As Canada was a new country to me and English was not my native language. I have to start my life all over, and frankly I was scared. However people in Branksame gave me such warm feeling and adapted quickly to the school life. I have counselors who gave me useful suggestions in choosing courses; I have residence dons who took care of me in every aspect of my daily life; I have friends who would support me no matter what and help me to overcome my homesick. I cannot believe that the two most precious years in my life have passed by so quickly. When I think back, so many memories are in my mind: The Infusion, Blaaview volunteer, Mentorship Program, Farmal..... Two years have passed, yet I have gained so much. I have become an independent person. I am very glad that I have made the decision to come to Branksame. Friends from all around the world, I will miss you. TYEN TYEN, I will miss you as well as your screaming and laughing in my room.

MEREDITH LI

McAlpine, 2001-2007, Ms. Olfert

It is hard to imagine myself spending the last six years at a school other than Branksame. Where else would I find the unbelievable support from my teachers, whom I love? Where else would I form such incredible friendships? Where else would I be able to work with the awesome SLOGAN team? Where else would I jump madly and scream uncontrollably with 120 of my peers, all covered in purple? Mammy and Daddy, I love you so much; you've been everything that I needed when I needed be. Erica and Prudence, we're ridiculously close it's scary. Much thanks to everyone who made Branksame Branksame.

"We're glad for what we've got, done with what we've lost, our whole lives laid out right in front of us." To those of you who lived at Starbucks, bonded during "spare talks", let me bum a ride, napped in the grad room, explored downtown Toronto and beyond, hung out behind the apartments, lent an ipod, went for crepes, kept a secret, played tennis, performed, danced, did things spontaneously, and who have always made me laugh, you mean the world to me. I can't imagine these past 14 years without you. Mom and Dad, I know you were just looking out for me; I appreciate everything you've done. Gaylen, our memories are too amazing for words. Here's to cottage frisbee games and N64. My bests, the memories will last a lifetime and I thank you for all that you taught me. Congrats 007 graduates!

CAROLINE LO

"A true friend reaches for your hand and touches your heart."

- Anonymous. To those of you who've touched mine thank you for fourteen years of laughter, countless Starbucks runs, teaching me to seize the day, heart to hearts, adventures on Bloor and beyond, always giving me a shoulder to cry on and unforgettable memories.

Mommy - You've taught me that our differences will only bring us closer together. You are my foundation, my head and my heart - thank you for allowing me to grow, reminding me that no matter how far I go, there will always be a road leading me back home, and helping me learn that life is only what you make of it. Daddy - You've given me the determination to succeed and more opportunities than I could even thank you for. Hannah - Thank you for being my best friend first and my sister second. Margret - You've taught me age is just a number. Thank you for keeping me forever young. Carol and Ron - You've given me a home away from home. Thank you for teaching me that family has nothing to do with blood. It has meant the world to me. Grads 007 - Nobody makes me prouder to wear purple. Peace and a whole lotta love. We did it!

JESSIE MA

McAlpine, 2001-2007, Ms. Olfert

Mom & Dad: Thank you 10,000 times over for giving me all the love and support you have given me in the past 17 years. Without you, I would never be able to take such wide steps as those that I have taken. ALL my friends and AEs: Thank you for always willing to reach out for a warm hug when I need them the most. All those cramming sessions, long discussions, jokes & moments that made me laugh until I literally had to lie down, because I could no longer stay standing - I'll never forget them!

Classics Club & Members: I will miss thee!!! Long nights at school the week before Classics Conference, sitting silently with buzzers in our sweaty hands during Certamen - the legend lives on! Good luck with C-Con all through the years and may BH dominate it one day!!!

Teachers: Thank you for your guidance and all the knowledge you have provided me with. Without you and your immense understanding, Jessie Ma will cease to exist.

Branksome: Thank you for giving me a second home and connecting me with all the great people I've met during my time here!!

The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams.
Eleanor Roosevelt

That's what we are, as the graduating class of 2007, visionaries who were taught to believe in our dreams. Branksome was that teacher. Responsible for the all-day Starbucks study sessions, locker room panic attacks, and addiction to 'venti non fat london fogs.' It's been there since the jawbreaker incident of 98', the snowboard accident of 00', and the blonde to brown colour change of 04'. Mom, you have been there through everything, the ups, downs, and further downs. Through the constant fight over clothes, to the heart to hearts covered in tears, you have been there, thank you. Dad your ally cat is now graduating, can you believe it... I did it! Girls you are the ones that have been there since the beginning, it wouldn't have been the same without you, forget all the Starbucks trips, smelling like subway, and missioning it to lettuce. You have been there for the good, the bad and the ugly. I thank you...for every class skipped, Starbucks trip, and subway venture. Branksome will forever be a second home, with purple reigning supreme. To all the grads...007 girls...we did it!

"And though you wanted to last forever, you know you never will, and the goodbye makes the journey harder still" (Cat Stevens)

To teachers who frowned at and encouraged me, I say thank you. To family-Mom: no matter how weird you claim to be, you're still my best friend; Dad: I love you so much and one day I WILL pay you back; Luke: my partner in crime, through the laughs and tears I love you Mariah; Tmac: keep it real and don't grow up too fast; Nagymami: szeretlek-Without your wisdom, love and cheesy humour, this experience just wouldn't have been the same. To friends worth WAY more than initials and know who they are-I will miss you true fannies, the bonding ventures to well... anywhere and all the times where we've laughed till we've cried and cried till we've laughed. You've shown me who I am and you've had the comfiest shoulders to cry and laugh on. To GY-well, it seems we have come a long way. You girls have changed my life and I know I will never forget the purple, the hallways we've lived in, the classrooms we've terrorized or the very public places where we have proudly pulled up our knee socks. Love You All & Good Luck, XO.

LESLIE MALOLM

Scott, 1999-2007, Ms. Stumborg

8 years of the battles with the top button, the fight to keep my socks up and the everlasting bitterness towards the bathing cap and now more than ever I'm not ready to give it up. So here's to the hallway chats, purple being my favorite colour and advisor lovin'. Prefs- it's been a blast. Rovers- you've shown me the true meaning of bus rides, spandex and dedication. To the Girls who keep me coming back and are forever irreplaceable. You've made these 8 years unforgettable, the laughs unstoppable and the thought of leaving terrifying. Teens, Maggie, EK- you are a part of me, KW, AT, SM, CP- thanks for the memories. PS- my personal Charles Dickens, you know me inside and out KO- 1 of the family, I could laugh with you for hours. Malcolm5: Katie- you're the PB to my J- I'd be lost without you Scott- the funniest person I know, thanks for showing me your ways ~ an unstoppable trio. Mum- your advice is unbeatable and your love keeps me going Dad- your wisdom is endless- our snuggles will always be my favorite. G&G- you're my perma cheerleaders. For real this time Malcs signing out -Love ya love ya.

ZAMARA MARITZER

Coming in grade 11 was a big change not knowing anyone at Branksome. Once I got to the school everyone was very welcoming and kind and if it weren't for my friends today, Branksome would not be what it is to this day. Thank you girls for everything, the experiences we've had will never be forgotten. Parents, Thanks for sending me to Branksome and supporting me all the way through these past two years. You are the best parents and I love you guys. If it wasn't for you sending me here I would not be able to play Mario Kart on the N64 in the grad Room. Friends I love all you girls and good luck next year and girls remember "It's a girl's world, men just live in it". Everyone better keep in touch. BRANK WHAAA...BRANKSOME!!!! 12 years come and gone. One blink and you'll miss it. I honestly didn't know how I'd feel as I wrote this thing, until I realized all that has been accomplished and all those that have helped me along the way. To my parents: you gave me everything I could have ever dreamed of and supported me in all my craziest decisions. My sister: all the memories, from Barbies to the good times in placeCityOttawa. Colleen: good thing I brought you that popsicle, love you girl. Dan and Megan: I don't think I'd be half the person I am without you two. You guys have given me so much hope and encouragement. Canada, Ontario and OHS Rugby: the past 4 years would not have been as great as they were without you! To all the girls at Branksome who welcomed me into the GY family with open arms, I will never forget you. Rovers: thanks for the sweet times. Alexa and Katie: you girls literally made this year one of the best I could have asked for! Love you ladies so much. Remember "Every new beginning comes from some beginning comes from some beginning's end." Love you all and as they say "Keep Well the Road".

CAITLIN MCALLISTER

McAlpine, 2001-2007, Ms. Olfert

From Buccleuch to the GY Hall (red ties and all), I never imagined the end of these past six years. To the Speeps that never left the Stairwell, we made it through dancing too many nights away, the summer of '41, and countless mornings after. To caffeine, corduroy pants, road trips (CA @ S), to stealing hearts (and yearbooks), and to seeing the world (or sometimes just representing it). Emeline: you light my fire (but MM will do). Baby (did you mean Millent?); it's Monica, John. Deener: shall I entwine my fingers in your beard? Bunny: I'm glad you're my friend (and so is Trevor). Gurby: British humour and banana bread go hand in hand. Lea: for being my bumsm blonde. To the teachers who inspired me (surtout Madame), to the colour purple (and to red, green, black, and white). To all the girls who made the classes—and certainly the kilts (MM)—shorter, the lunches longer, and the laughs harder: you know who you are. To J & V (my sisters), Crips & Ricky (my homeboys), I & S (my doyles), and lastly to Mom and Dad, for making it all come true. 007 Grads, the world is yours.

KATHRYN MCLAUCHLIN

Douglas, 2003-2007, Mrs. Reid

While my first day in plaid was nerve-racking, those sentiments were short-lived. Branksome has the uncanny ability to make you feel like you can do anything. Helen Keller once said "I'm not afraid of storms, for I am learning how to sail my ship." Because of Branksome, I am comfortable taking the sails. To the IBers who suffered through the storm, we got our "challenge." To the girls in pink, your spirit is unrivaled. Chieftains, you are the rainbow that has taught me not to fear the rain. To the Guild, I never knew I could. To the teachers who taught more than the syllabus, what I've learned goes far beyond the classroom. To the ladies who made the tears more bearable, the good times better and who don't see natural sunlight, you are why I come to school smiling. Thank you. To my brothers, Jamie and Andrew, you've taught me to take it all in stride. Mum and Dad, thanks for the lunches, the early morning drop-offs, the late night pick-ups and taking me around the loop. You have made it all possible and for that, I will never be able to thank you enough. Branksome, you will be missed.

ALEXANDRA MEIKLEJOHN

MacGregor, 1993-2007, Ms. Campbell-Rogers

I started at Branksome in suspenders, sporting a stylin' blonde fro and after 14 years I am leaving, wearing the red tie...and still with the fro. I have learned a lot at Branksome: not just in the classrooms, but also after school in stage band, on the docks, and from my friends. The relationships I've made here have made me grow as person and now make me look at situations from more than one point of view. To my friends whom I have shared many hilarious memories with, I'll miss you all. H&CAM: you have been there for me being the kind and understanding people that you are. And then there are the rowing coaches; thank you for making these past four years truly unforgettable. Bob, you have taught me the rowing stroke and how to work hard for something you really want. It will be different going down to the docks and not seeing you in the morning. Finally, to my parents: I know I drive you crazy but if it weren't for you, I would have never made it here: I love you. I know I'm not ready to grow up yet, but I am ready to move on to the next chapter of my life.

"I believe in memories they look so pretty when I sleep" JJ
To the 6 years at BH, Here's to the memories -To the school that became my home. To the million sleepless nights. To the girls who have kept me strong. We laughed so hard we cried, you are my sisters and you mean the world to me. Sarah- you'll forever be family, here's to the best 2 summers of my life (Italia love). Sam- always my #1 girl, no one gets me like you do. Whit- together we've been through it all. QB's (SM, HF, BM, TL), KM, LC, ND, you girls are my laughter and my loves. To the guys that made it all worthwhile, no regrets. Samuel- more than a brother my best friend, no one makes me more proud. Mom- for giving me passion. Dad- for the inspiration to be better. -Thanks for the opportunity, support and understanding. I appreciate it more than you know -To all my girls in plaid, the world is yours! Branksome girls do it with class - Ciao xo

INGRID MIRANDA

Douglas, 2003-2007, Mrs. Reid

Branksome! Thank you for all the support and opportunities in the last 3 years.

I will never forget the long nights of hard work, the tears running through my face, I won't. It's not enough. Let's not forget how much you girls have done. To you Nabila- I owe you the world. Friends-My admiration and love goes far beyond. South Africa Trip 2006- Unconditional Triangle of Hope! Unforgettable Episodes. To my family: Lore-My best friend-It's called true love. Jose A- Thank you for making me laugh when I need it the most. Mom and Dad-I think I have no words to thank you! Best leaders, best shepherds! You deserve an award. GY's we made it! Keep in touch!. Peace&Love, Ingy!

MERRIK MORGAN

McLeod, 2005-2007, Ms. Friend

To my rezzies and res dons, past and present - I would have to say I owe the fact that I haven't gone crazy to all of you (if only because your insanity dwarfs my own). It's been a great experience and I would have to say the only thing I won't miss is the lack of male interaction. To my day-girl buddies - you know who you are - it's been quite the experience, to say the least, and I enjoyed (almost) every minute of it - wherever you are in the world next year, keep on being the same defective people that I know and love. To all my teachers, counselors and everyone else along the way, thanks. Bye Bye Branksome, it's been good knowing you.

JIHANA MOTTLEY

MacGregor, 2005-2007, Ms. Campbell-Rogers

What can I say about Branksome? A lot! Considering that I've only been here for two years. Attending Branksome and living in residence has been interesting. Many years, laughs and achievements have resulted in my senior years being a life-changing experience. That, and me developing a serious aversion to plaid. I thank my parents most of all for giving me this opportunity and always supporting me; I owe all of my successes to them, as well as their life-savings. I only hope that I can keep making them proud. I can't imagine what I would have done without the res kids, L.R., P.P., E.J., G.O., L.C., M.M. Haha, I will never throw out my fancy pants! The Rivals- thanks for adopting me. My dons, J.P., V.B., L.L., D.A., M.D., C.C., R.S. and of course Ms. CR, I appreciate all the support! Thank you Branksome. May the road continue to be well- kept, as well as the overpass.

ERIN MUNRO

Douglas, 2003-2007, Ms. Reid

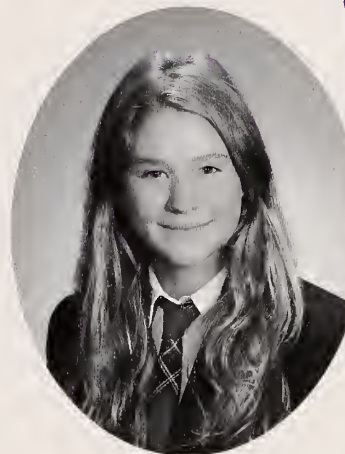

These four years in Plaid have sure flown by; they seem like nothing. But they are everything to me. To all the girls who laughed, cried, then laughed until we cried with me. My friends, you were there through the good and the bad. Thanks. To all of the stars Runs, dances and nights filled with laughter, those are the times we will always keep with us. To all of the girls who shared this experience with me, I hope you loved every minute as much as I did. Everything counts so remember the little moments too. Brankie, thanks for being my 'other' family. Mommy, Daddy and Davey, thanks for all of the opportunities and for teaching me to take on any challenge. I hope I made you proud, and continue to do so. I love you so much. PBP, you were always there to make me smile, these years would have been much longer without you. Merlin, wiggly-bum, you took magic everywhere you went. Codie, you're the newest member to the family, and my princess. Josef my white knight you will always be my cuddle bear. Congrats girls of '007, We did it.

MAGGIE MURPHY

MacGregor, 2002-2007, Ms. Campbell-Rogers

After five years I'm sure I am leaving Branksome a better more plaidloving person than I was when I arrived. It was worth the fuck bills, photocopy cards and yes...even the swim cap. Here's to the basketball games, maroon-room talks, mugs of cereal, Thai Magic trips, spandex and wife beaters, Sunday coffees, and pretzels that got me through it all. To the girls who made it worthwhile, nt,se,bt, and gd(the two odd ones out, but still together) I can't thank you enough. Christina- hopefully some of you has rubbed off on me- you keep me sane. Evek- my partner in crime, I trust you more than myself. To the people who taught me to have fun, my Havergal chicas and UCC hombres, you're some of the best. Tim- I just can't seem to get rid of you, thanks for all the late night talks. Annie- nothing's changed since Kindergarten. Nicky- the sister I never had- you always lent an ear. Jackie- never quit wearing your heart on your sleeve. Mom- you make me laugh til I cry, and kepp me laughing even through the tears; you're unconditionally my biggest fan. And Dad, nothing needs to be said- you already know.

OLIVIA MUSSELLS

Douglas, 2003-2007, Ms. Reid

Those first days in plaid (a Kilt-ure shock if you will- ok no more BH puns, I swear) was when time switched into supersonic mode turning 4 years into one long, intense, emotional, fantastic, colourful (though green features most prominently) blur. I tried to stay in Never Never Land forever, but I've come to realize that (just as promised) maybe growing up isn't so bad after all. Thanks to mom, dad and C² for taking the mess, and the Sunday night panics, and for giving me all the endless possibilities and the 5 am rides. Thanks to the teachers who have taught me more than what was just on the dreaded Syllabus. And a final merci beaucoup to all the people (notably but then again, definitely not limited to those crazy lbers- who raise the stress level just for the fun of it) who came with me for the ride, through laughter, tears, stress attacks and then more laughter; you made life that much sweeter. Grad of double-o-seven, This is agent "Mussells" (that's m-ooo-selle-z), signing out.

SARAH NATION

MacLean, 1996-2007, Ms.Knox

"Kid you'll move mountains, today is your day. Your mountain is waiting so get on your way." (D. Zeus) Branksome, you have prepared me to climb.

I never imagined the day that I would graduate from my plaid skirt but now I have to say it's a bitter sweet good bye. My 11 years at Branksome mean nothing without the people who spent life savings at MacDonalds, laughed, fought, cried and crammed 2manytimes, & made late nights bearable, early mornings livable & good times the most memorable. Mom, thanks for supporting me & inspiring me by allowing me to pursue my passions, from acting to tennis. Dad, the cow place picnics, Marty the smarty stories & funny e-mails have shaped me into the person I am today. I love you both! Ave, my second mom, you've taught me everything I need to know; I can run my own house & cook my own food. You've been there from the beginning and I'll be there till the end. Sophie, through the ups & downs you've been the best sister I could ask for. I'll miss u next yr! Finally, cheers to the girls of 007. We made purple reign!

ASHLEY NIBLETT

MacLean, 2003-2005, Ms. Fitton

I can't believe that my 4 years at Branksome are already over, but I know that I am leaving with memories that will last me a life time. BH was my 2nd home, and it feels so weird having to say good bye! I will always remember the girls who have filled my past 4 years with truly unforgettable memories-from winters in C-wood, to summers in Muskoka (my summer sisters) - keep in touch for ever and ever!! Here's to the rowers and coaches, who helped me understand what it means to push yourself to the max- you are all the reason why the early mornings in spandex were worth it. To my teachers, thank you for your patience, guidance and excellence. Finally, to the loves of my life- mom, daddy, and baby girl- I cannot imagine where I would be today without your unconditional love, support and encouragement. "I'll love you forever, I'll like you for always, as long as I'm living, your baby I'll be". Trev, my little ladies man, don't ever give up on your dreams. Grads of '07, wherever you may go in life, go with all of your heart.
Much love, Ashley xox

KATHERINE O'CONNOR

MacLean, 2003-2007, Ms. Fitton

5 years ago I would have never predicted what I feel today. From grubs and boys, to kilts, blazers and 120 sisters, my journey at Branksome has been amazing. To the rowers - I am so proud to have been part of a team with such hardworking people who know their way around Walmart like the back of their hand. To the coaches- thank you for making me push myself to places I didn't even know existed. Thanks to the girls who kept the fun and joy in my life. CS- for making me laugh till I can't breathe. LH, AT- you make me proud to live in Etobicoke (or close enough to it). Les- you are my shoulder to cry on and always keep me grounded and Paige- your honesty and friendship help me reach new heights in my life. SP and JS- the girls from my hood- love you. Mom- your care, support and will to give have kept me strong and Dad- your advice and love have helped shape me into the girl I am today. Matt- your strength and goodwill will always make me proud. My fam, I love you all to death - Thank you!

DALANA PARRIS

MacLean, 2003-2007, Ms. Fitton

My brother once said to me, "If you want to score, you have to be prepared to miss". He was right. Coming to Branksome four years ago was a big step, but I have loved every moment of the adventure on which it has taken me and I will forever cherish the memories. To my parents- words cannot express how grateful I am to you. You have always been there for me and your love has molded me into who I am today. Darnell-Lord knows I am lucky to have a brother like you. To my gyaals- FGHEF - there were times we laughed and times we cried, but we were together throughout it all. I will love you forever and always. Even as we go our separate ways, the one thing that will keep us together is our friendship. You are the strength that gets me through the day and I am blessed to know you. MacLean- you are my second family and your spirit and enthusiasm reminds me what Branksome is all about. From the locker room to the grad room, spirit week and formal, grads of the 007 we made it!
Nuff Love, Dalana Parris

JULIA PENISTON

Ross, 2001-2007, Mrs. Penny

"Don't stop this train. Don't for a minute change the place you're in" - JM. I think it's safe to say that this doesn't feel like the end. To Mommy and Daddy, I owe you more than I could ever write in words. Both of you have given me more opportunities and love than I can thank you for. Laura, I am lucky to have you as a sister...you keep me sane when things aren't quite right. JS - there is no one else I would rather collect an endless supply of legs with. It's been 14 years since the gingham houses started. Let's keep 'em coming. To all the girls who know what it's like to cross that finish line; thanks for the tears, the laughs, and most of all the spandex. Coaches, you believed in me and made me find strength I never knew I had. My sacred mooners, you've kept me engaged. And finally, my beautiful girls in plaid: here's to late night cab rides, movies with Chinese food, chuna, purple reign, and laughing until our stomachs hurt. We've come far from the days of grade 7 - don't let the memories fade.

RACHEL PENNY

MacGregor, 1997-2007, Ms. Campbell-Rogers

Here's to all the steps along the way that have made the past ten years better than I could have dreamed: from junior school to GY, from France to Indian didis, from crew love to Therac, the Dream Team, and many more, from purple power to IB girls to prefects, and to those shining summers on Birch. To the people who have made my time at Branksome so magical: Mom and Dad, for the perfect mix of love, support and inspiration, thank you and I love you always. Fiona, our memories are priceless and do not end here, I know you'll always be around to make me laugh, even when I don't want to. My friends: you know who you are, and I hope you know that you mean the world to me. Thanks to teachers for your time and wisdom, and to good old BH for all the plaid. Looking back now, I wish I could assure my eight-year-old self first arriving at Branksome of the wonders that lay ahead for her, for they have been absolutely magical. Best of luck 007s, keep well the road! "What's past is prologue." Shakespeare

ALISON PITFIELD

McAlpine, 2001-2007, Ms. Olfert

It's hard to believe that it's over. My six years at BH have been nothing short of fabulous. Mom (Yanny), you are the most courageous woman I have ever met. I am going to be a disaster next year without your love and support. Dad, you inspire me with your love of life. I can't imagine life next year without your terrible jokes and requests for tea and popsicles. Liz, we can always see eye to eye- you have the kindest heart and the sweetest disposition-thank you for always being there to help when life was tough. Steph, you amaze me with your unbelievable strength and drive to succeed, you have always been my role model- bsf. Harty, my other half, my best friend, thank you for keeping me sane and not letting me become too much of a girly-girl. Don't stop smiling. We will always have our telepathy skills. I LOVE YOU ALL. E- My 3rd sister, you're the only person who understands me, love u girl- DHeath- You're like no other. I've jumped into the deep end, and I'll be there for a while-rolph. To the 10,04evz, alann, thechiefs, thegirlsinred, OB, to every GY girl- keep it real. LIVE, LAUGH, LOVE.....ali

LOK-KAY (JACQUELINE) POON

MacLean, 2003-2007, Ms. Fitton

We finally made it! First off, I would like to thank my parents and my brother for their undying support and unconditional love. Without them I would've never made it here at Branksome Hall. I didn't know what to expect coming in at grade 9 because everything was new - I was new. Unfortunately, when I'm gone, everything will become a memory. At Branksome, I've had some of the most memorable moments and experiences that will surely follow me later into my adult life. I've learned so many things here, and these four years have been a blast! I would also like to thank the teachers for their never-ending efforts to drill lessons into my brain and for making school so challenging, because life is all about challenges, and I feel they've prepared me for it. Last but not least, I have to thank my friends. You phatties made me feel accepted, and were there with and for me through the rough and stressful times. Branksome has allowed me to grow as a person and I will truly miss this school when I depart on my journey of life. Forever and Always: F.G.H.M.F (you know it)

CASSANDRA POTICHNYJ

MacGregor, 2003-2007, Ms. Fitton

"Wherever you go, no matter what the weather, always bring your own sunshine"-Anthony J.D'Angelo. Ladies, the time has come! WE ARE DONE! And it is only going to get better. We will all be taking different routes and whatever those routes may be, keep a smile on your face! "School's out, Memory's past, Don't ever doubt, Our friendship will last". Hayley Edwards and Sophia Valani..Where would I be without you girls? You girls kept me smiling and laughing even at the hardest moments of my life..love you girls with all of my heart. Most importantly, my family...It was hard accepting that I would be attending all ALL GIRL'S school and have NO boys for four years...but it truly has been an unforgettable experience that I will never forget. I love you, thank you! Ladies, "There is a good reason they call these ceremonies "commencement exercises". Graduation is not the end, it is just the beginning".-Orrin Hatch. XOXO cheers grrrls!

EMILY RAMSHAW

MacGregor, 2001-2007, Ms. Campbell-Rogers

Sitting down and summing up the past six years is proving to be more difficult than I imagined and I realize now how much they have meant to me. Here's to India, summers at Stony, the Goof, costume parties, the stage. To Branksome, a school that has taught me who I am and who I can be. To the greatest friends in the world: you have stood by me and I know I will depend on you long after we walk out the door in white dresses. To Mum and Dad: I'm so proud to be your daughter. To Tom: my friend, my confidant, and my polar opposite. To all the grads: I've never had more friends. I love you all—we deserve the best ending to the most amazing journey. Remember what we have here, because when all is said and done, the girls who walked with you to Starbucks, stayed at school with you until nine at night, and told and listened to all the stories while sitting in the hall, will mean more than anything else. This is only the beginning, and as wonderful as this was, the best is still to come. Peace and love, em

"There's only now, there's only here, give in to love or live in fear, no other path, no other way, No Day But Today." - RENT
Who knew 6 years could go by so fast. Its been a whirlwind, but we're at the end, and I couldn't have asked for better people to have come with me this far. Dad: Thank you for giving me all you have, and pushing me to be better (as much as I complain) Mum: You will forever be my #1 chauffeur...shorty. I love you both more than you know. Katie: You may be shorter than me but I look up to you. Sarah: stay crazy, stay loud, stay you... mengen dog betch. Girls: You have all touched my life in a way that putting down your initials doesn't do justice to. To anyone who missioned to Starbucks and McDonalds even when it was raining or freezing, who I laughed with, cried with, danced with, spent hours on the phone with, went on an adventure near or far with, and who truly understands FGHEF. You know who you are, you're the ones I'll be coming home for. To all the grads of 007: purple will forever reign.

LAURENCE RIVARD

Scott, 2003-2007, Ms. Stumborg

À mes parents, merci beaucoup pour ces 18 années. Mes années à Branksome et en résidence étaient supers. Plus que l'éducation, vous m'avez aidée par le sport, les camps d'été et d'autres défis. Vous avez investi beaucoup de temps, d'énergie et d'émotions en moi, et j'espère donc que vous serez fiers de mes accomplissements. Compter sur moi pour conserver ma langue maternelle et pour ne jamais oublier mon héritage canadien-français. À vous deux, je dis "Je vous aime". Simon, my favourite brother ever, you are the best. Keep your chin up, we'll conquer our LDs together. À mes toutous (mes chien) Nala, Magma, et Kong: Je vous adore. RMBSH YY.UUE ATNA N.TST EHP RIA CNC UEK P.. Thanks for always being there for me, especially through the hard times when I needed you the most. As the snow falls this evening, I'll always remember the memories from Quebec City, snowboarding, and our time spent together in my final two years of high school. "Live, Love, Learn" - Something my dad always tells me. ~ "If you're not living on the edge, you're taking up too much room" - a quote my mom told me several years back. ~ "Rabbits" - for my brother...its tradition. ~ "Learn from yesterday, Live for today, Work for tomorrow" - some words I live by.

HAILEY ROSENBERG

MacLean, 2003-2007, Ms. Fitton
In the famous words of Dr. Seuss, "Don't cry because it's over. Smile because it happened."

These past four years spent at Branksome Hall have been the most amazing years of my life. I have learned more than books can teach. I have become a better person, student, daughter, sister, and friend. I owe this experience to my parents who have not only provided me with this incredible opportunity, but have also given me the love and support I needed to get through these years. To my friends I can't tell you how much you girls mean to me, and although most of us are splitting up I just remember I will always be there for you, as I know you will be there for me. Finally, to the graduating class of 007, I will miss you all.

ELLA ROWAN

McLeod, 1995-2007, Mrs. Marshall
I need to get the sentimental stuff done with now. I love you Mom, Dad, and Gray. I love you Pits. I love you Cheungs. I will always love and remember the majestic rise and fall of the ten tenners! I came to Branksome three feet tall in grade one. Twelve years and approximately two hundred and forty thousand dollars later, I'm two and a half feet taller, a heck of a lot smarter, and deeply in debt. Thank you Branksome Hall!

CHARLOTTE RYAN

McAlpine, 1998-2007, Ms. Olfert
It seems impossible for me to sum up my nine years at Branksome, for I am still in denial that it is over. Looking back, I never thought high school would come to an end, for the end was too far away. "Funny the feeling when forever ends" (DMB). M+D--> Although "the wall" sometimes kept us apart, I love you more than anything. Katolina--> heller, you never cease to amuse me and you always take care of me, I don't know what I would have done without your infamous footsteps to follow in. To the "ten", E4EVZ, Onondaga, Sinep and everyone in between--> you saw me through everything, thanks. Ms Olfert--> my teacher, my advisor and most of all my friend, you have taught me so much, thank you. JF--> you keep me sane and you're always there. Emma--> my muse, I wouldn't have survived without you. To the class of '07 Congrats. We did it!

VICTORIA SAHAGIAN

Ross, 2003-2007, Mrs. Penny

These past four years have been wonderful, from spirit week to advisor meetings they have been filled with unforgettable moments, and it's thanks to all you GY girls! Thank you to my group of lunch time pals you know who you are, you have made Branksome great. I'll miss you all so much next year! Thank you to the teachers for all your help and support. Most importantly thank you to my family (Mom, Dad, Sarah, Pierce, and Shamus) especially Mom for your help, love and just being the best Mom ever! I love you all so much!

PAIGE SAIN

Scott, 2001-2007, Ms. Stumborg

From our very interesting rendition of purple stew to my last advisor snack and everything in between, I cannot express in words how much BH has meant to me. To the days of super hero-ing, containers of afro wax, the coaches and the "datheder" thank you for giving me all of my unforgettable moments. Kater: You, me and Zack Morris have been together since the beginning and you bet it's going to stay that way. Leslie (sour apple) Malcolm & KT (lau ghuntillcry) O'Connor: I couldn't have asked for two better friends to spend my last everything with. AM: I wouldn't share a shirt from Timmins, tuck down a hill or make special desserts with anyone else. AT, JP, Nella, and Rabs you girls keep me going. Peakers: Don't you dare change. Mom and Dad, I only hope that I can grow up to be even half the person you both are; thank you for giving me such big shoes to fill. Maddy, you are one in a million and it's a good thing too because there's only room for one of you. M3P, I love you all the way to the moon and back. Finally, to BH, the Chieftains, Cora and Teresa you have been my second family.

ASHLEIGH SAUNDERS

The four years I have spent at Branksome Hall have changed me in ways I would never have thought possible. I am leaving my second home with memories that will last me a lifetime and a plaid kilt I am proud to have worn. To my closest, you have touched my heart and been by my side through the good and bad; no matter how far, you will always be with me. To the teachers who endured and encouraged me, thank you for broadening my horizons. Ms. Wood: I would never have gotten past the famous five if it was not for all your help. HPT: "Dream as if no one can say no", let's get em in 2012. Mom and Dad: I owe so much to you for the support and opportunities you have given me. I love you more than you will ever know. Kate: My fashion icon, thank you for always standing by me. Robert: Bubsie, "Have fun as if you never have to grow up". Nana: I only wish you could see who I have become today. I miss you and our letters with all my heart. Grads '07 let the purple reign live long. I will never forget you. Ash.

LEAH SEMPLE

Ross, 2001-2007, Mrs. Penny

"Don't let em' hold you down, reach for the stars"-Notorious B.I.G. My 07's in plaid: I wouldn't want to be in any other generation. So many of u have left impressions on me that will stay with me for good, love & thanks. Mrs. Penny: Thank you for everything. Your support and guidance has made these years a lot easier. What will I do without you in uni? DAD-MOM-ADAM-MATT-LOGGY: how will I ever leave you all? Mom&Dad: thanks for being such beautiful people to look up to, for teaching/providing me with all that u have-You are so special to me& have inspired me to incredible heights-I know I'll accomplish half of what you 2 have I will have lived a full life. I adore u both. Boys: Who needs sisters? A: U are such a great source of fun& advice. M: U have grown so fast & I'm so impressed with u. L: I'm going to pack u up& take u to uni so I can always be laughing. My Buddies: This isn't the end of any relationship because we will still share support/advice and hilarious nights for years to come. ### ZOË SHARE

Ross, 1998-2007, Mrs. Penny

Branksome is: clutter crammed into an agenda, faces smiling, and faces frozen in stress. Branksome is: a high, a blur, full of frustrations and resolutions. Branksome is: guidance, opportunity, and a chance to speak out. Branksome is: waiting in anticipation for a dance and its theme, spending hours on BranksomeNet, practically living at school. Branksome is: the people you like, the people you love, and the people who change your life. Branksome is: my bad days, my great days, nine years of my life. Branksome is: more than a school- independent, all-encompassing, and wonderful. Branksome is: 2007 graduates partying in purple, the spirit of the plaid (red and green both), and laughter rolling down a hallway. Mummy, Daddy: I owe to you both so much. You are, quite literally, the wind beneath my wings. Sam: my role model and my friend for life-never settle. Everyone: Thank you for all the memories, for putting up with me and for molding me into who I am today.

HUI (CANDY) SHEN

Douglas, 2004-2007, Mrs. Reid

Yeah!!!! Finally, I am going to graduate from BH!! To MUM & DAD: Thank you so much for giving me the great chance to study abroad! >O< Special thanks to all the important frds who have shared laughs and tears with me within these three years! Si Te: BEST forever!! U act like my twin sis! Melo: remember our stair' timez... Da Bao: swang, wang fly, shuya, jun jie, sha niu! Neil: let's keep exchanging bl information!! JenChoi: kkkkkkk...u no it... kkkkk...Also, great thanks to all the teachers! Bye-bye, Branksome...I will miss you.

ASHLEIGH SHIER

McAlpine, 2001-2007, Ms. Olfert

O Branksome...

O Buddies: I appreciate you all sticking it out with me, even at my most alarming moments of insanity.

O Big Brothers: Cortney, Jeremy, and Jesus (...I mean Adam) you make me smile and I always could come to you, be it for chilling or advice. I wish you all the best.

O Brilliant Educators: Ms. Olfert - Ms. O, you made us actually like advisor. May we eat pie and drink juice out of plastic cups again one day. Mr. Gerow - G, where to begin. I've memorized all your schtick, but for some reason I still laugh anyway. I will never clap on beats 1 and 3 ever again (unless, of course, if I am at a polka).

To The Rest: Cheers. I don't know how you do it. H*cock, last but not least - Han-pod lives on.

O Parental Units: Thank you doesn't even begin to describe it. Despite popular belief, I love you guys.

O Grads: Walk out of any doorway, feel your way like the day before. Maybe you'll find direction, around some corner where it's been waiting to meet you. -Grateful Dead

STEPHANIE SHUTER

Campbell, 1996-2007, Ms. Gambin

CHEERS to 10 amazing years at BH, and thanks to everyone who made them so unforgettable!!! Mum & 'global' Dad - you've given me the world. JC & Katie - from African safaris, to South American rainforests & ancient ruins - from bustling European cities to unmapped villages... traveling to remote destinations would not be the same without you! P.S. - never let go of your spectacular foreign accents!! Josie - 12 years later and you still put up with me! I'll never forget the laughs, your charm & wisdom. To all my South Africans ('South-effricans') - thanks for the 'jol' of a lifetime, and for giving me the most divine second home. Al: my other half - we will always be twins. I could never knock around in the gramadoelas without you. Ja, ja, meet you down there just now.

Adios - Au revoir - Totsiens - Ciao - Auf Wiedersehen - Sayonara

Peace & Love

EMMA SMITH

McAlpine, 1995-2007, Ms. Olfert

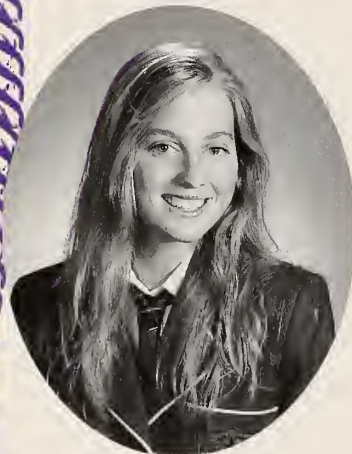

Oh-my-gosh...I can't believe it's time for grad comments. It seems like just yesterday I was in gr.1, looking up at my big sister (gr.12) thinking "Wow! She's so big!" I don't think we're that big. It's hard to believe that 12 years at Branksome have already gone by. I can already imagine all the difficulties I'm going to have picking out what to wear everyday! No more kilt...that's a shocker! To my besties: thank you for all the good times we've shared together; there are way too many to name! You guys helped me through bad times, amused me when I was bored and supported me when I needed help. You've made me laugh, snort and sometimes cry (from laughing so hard). I can't wait to make more memories with you...xoxo! To my parents: I wouldn't be who I am today without you. You've been such an influential force in my life and I just want to say thank you. You've given me so many opportunities and I appreciate them all. I love you!!! To the gy's, aka 007's: you girls are amazing! I couldn't have asked for a better group of girls to be with. Congrats guys...we made it!

LARA SNUCINS

MacLean, 2003-2007, Ms. Fitton

After only four short years at Branksome, I can't believe that it's already time to say goodbye. It seems like just yesterday that I put on my kilt for the first time, and came to school wishing that I knew which direction to go to get to class. Now I only wish that I could go back to that daunting day four years ago, just so I could relive my Branksome experience. From sports teams, bands and clubs, to spirit week, the Rout and finally wearing a red tie, my time at Branksome has truly been incredible. To my amazing friends who have been there through everything, you helped make it all worthwhile, and I couldn't have done it without you. Thanks for the memories. South Africa girls, it was the most incredible two weeks of my life and I can't imagine a better group of people to have spent it with. Teachers, coaches and anyone who has helped me along the way, you have inspired me to be the best I can. Most importantly, to my parents- thanks for the early morning drives, the support and making it all possible. GY's, we did it! Keep smiling. xox

CHLOE SULLIVAN

MacLean, 1993-2007, Ms. Knox

I don't know where to begin, and so may never find an ending. I wish I could say the same about my days at Branksome Hall. Fourteen years cannot be put into two hundred words, so I'm thanking the memories, not reliving them. To my little Bro: I'm off and away, but always making sure I wait for you to catch up. You'll always be my 'buddy', my 'partner-in-crime'. To my Mom and Dad: You gave me the world, just as you always wished. I will spend forever trying to pay you back and will never even come close; the gratitude has too high an altitude. You'll always be the hand in mine. To Will: I owe much of what I have learned to you; through your patience, wisdom and above all, your love. I Love You, Now and Forever. And to you, dear Branksome, your teachers and students, I thank the most; for everything you have meant to me, and everything you have helped me become. Thanks for the ride.

CATHERINE TENNANT

McAlpine, 2001-2007, Ms. Olfert

GYs: Whether doncing the Cell Block Tongo on Grade Eight cruise or finally winning Spirit Week in Grade 11, thanks for the memories. Tangs: You are amazing, colourful people. The Green Machine: Never, ever stop. You girls all rock. James: No matter how many times I was almost late because of your morning showers, I owe you big for being my "big" brother and best friend. (I guess if you have to shore your face with somebody, you at least want their face to be clean, right?) Mom and Dad: "I'll love you forever, I'll like you for always, for ever and always your baby I'll be." Thank you for everything, I love you. Ash: Van, Latinos, Math, POTC, Screaming Children on Skis, Porn Cops, Panackes - We do have a FRANS-ship like that. Adria: Forever SA - "I really have to pee." Clifford: 1:10 scale, uniformed guys, "laundry soap", getting "lost". Mere-bear: Thanks for keeping my sanity for me. Jen, Jessie, Sarah, Victoria and all my friends: There have been classes, weekends, exchanges, trips, clubs and many a lunch. You made it all worthwhile, and totally entertaining. Thanks. Ms. O: Advisor, Choir, and pow-wows between classes - thank you so much.

ANDREA TESLIA

Campbell, 2001-2007, Ms. Gambin

Done, but I'm not sure what I'll do without the plaid? My girls: TayBaby you're always there for me and I cannot imagine France&Italy/the past two years without you, you've changed alot about me. JaneyGirl-Etobs was made for you&me: Norbert(New&Old), KCS, Muskoka, weekday dates, GV- my life in no way would be the same without you..meet you in the trailerpark..then we'll visit tay in NYC(AJTime)? Ivey babes what will I do without you next year? Your "laidback" nature has suited me so well and let's face it, we're kindred spirits. JF/AP/CR my E4EVES, we've been through alot, you've meant so much to me through the years, I'll miss us. Laur&Mich you've made me into who I am and I cannot imagine any better influences. Mummy and Pops you've put up with and encouraged me everystep of the way and I LoveYouAll. LH&KO the endless hours trekking to Etobs w/you has let me get to know&adore you both. My old rowing girls LM/PS, you're always such an appreciated asylum from the storms that tend to hit my life. Thanks for everything Ms Gambin and everyone else in my life who has helped me get to this point: You're the reason I'm a trav'lin' on, Don't think twice it's Alright.

REBECCA THORNE

McLean, 2006-2007, Ms. Uys

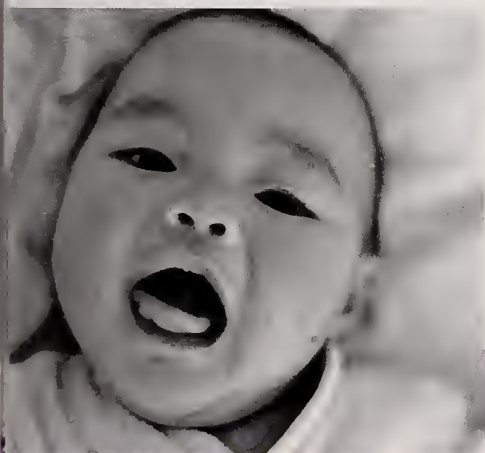

Having attended Branksome Hall for a matter of months, one may assume that I have little to write here. It turns out, however, that I have an infinite number of people to thank for making my transition as seamless as possible starting with Naomi Tudhope, Sarah Elharrar, Eve Kordyback, Christina Bothwell, Maggie Murphy and Chloé Sullivan. You girls saved me - as intimidating as an all girls boarding school is, you not only made this year bearable but unforgettable- you're all fabulous. I am therefore led to my rez girls- firstly Merrik Morgan, my beloved roommate who put up with many strange things, including late night M*A*S*H re-runs. My dearest Blue Whales are amazing, and I will miss you all sooo much next year- however I promise I'll check in on you often. And last but not least, I thank my parents for their support throughout this entire trip. You guys have given me countless opportunities and experiences throughout my mere 17 years. Finishing off in Toronto ended up being the right decision after all- I've met so many people from so many different places- and now we're going off to university and, well, that's a trip in itself. LOVE

NAOMI TUDHOPE

Ross, 1993-2007, Mrs. Penny

14 years in plaid and it's still fashionable. To everyone who made it that much better from sketchy nights, adventures, dinners out, nights in, shopping, dance parties, trips and more - you'll never stop making me laugh-much love. To my SIDA lovers: from Senegal to NYC, L.A and of course ny4ny je vous aime. China06: zenme ban? wo ai ni. Tan girls: much tanama-love. Ems: 86 years and going strong "biffer4liffer". Twin: different countries mean nothing-you'll always be there. SW: we've been through everything together (fool) and laughed through it all. Court: you're always here and always will be there-lots of love. Rhiannon: kato-kato-kato you keep me (in)sane. Mom: thanks for putting up with me and always being supportive. Dad: thanks for globetrotting and for letting me be just like you, even if you are slightly "bizarre". "Congratulations! Today is your day. You're off to great places, you're off and away. Oh! The places you'll go! You'll be on your way up. You'll be seeing great sights. You'll join the high fliers who soar to high heights" -Dr. Seuss.

EMILY TYEN

McLean, 2005-2007, Ms. Friend

"People are taught to remember, but never taught to grow." --Oscar Wilde. When I first stepped into this school --- without my parents, without my friends, I had to handle everything myself. It wasn't just a challenge, it was a whole new chapter of my journal. Not only have I obtained knowledge from school, I've also broadened my horizons and made myself independent. Thanks to my parents who never gave up on me, supporting me in any circumstances and most importantly, loving and caring me a thousand miles away. Thanks to my friends who are always there for me and special thanks to Ioana who makes fun of me, tackles me at night and tolerates me. Learning is like rowing upstream' not to advance is to drop back. "Congratulations class of 2007, WE DID IT!"

SOPHIA VALANI

McLeod, 2005-2007, Ms. Uys

I can't believe we're graduating! This time I have spent at Branksome has been unbelievable. Even through the late nights writing the essays that were due a month before and agonizing over applications, we went through it together which made it so much more amazing. Thanks so much to my family. Mom and Dad thanks for giving me the best of everything. Sarah and Nevina, you guys are amazing sisters and Ma you are the cutest grandma ever. Hayls and Cass - I love you guys so much. I'm gonna miss all you guys so much and I wish all you guys the best in the future.

xoxo Sophia

Thinking about the two years that I spent in Branksome, I realized that I got a experience that I will never forget. I met many good friends, and I recieved much help from many teachers, counsellors and other people at Branksome. I really enjoyed the time that I spent in Branksome.

McLeod, 2001-2007, Mrs. Marshall

I'm not going to say that it feels like yesterday that I first came to BH, seeing as yesterday was the day that the Leafs kicked the Habs' butts; but it definitely doesn't feel like I first walked through the doors of 10 Elm Avenue 6 years ago. My time here has flown by and I can't even start to express how much I'm going to miss it here. Ladies, you know who you are- the Goof, Kings, and pre-dance extravaganzas...BH wouldn't have been half as fun without you. Rowers- Somehow you make 4:30am something to look forward to. St. Mary's hasn't seen the last of us. Paige- Through the good times and bad, you've been my best friend for over a decade. I think Zac Morris would have been proud. Er-head and Beeth. Not only are you two the best sisters in the world, but you're my best friends. Love you both. P-units- Thanks for everything. You've been the best parents a girl could hope for. To all the Bond girls- I can't believe our time here has come to and end. May purple always reign!!! And in the ever-so blond words of Elle Woods: "We did it!!!"

Me? Leave? But how can this be?! It seems only yesterday that I stumbled into my grade one classroom in suspenders, tie and junior kilt! Truth is, there's nothing I've been more proud to wear, and the idea of a world without plaid and knee socks is both thrilling and heart wrenching. Moving from West to East of Mt. Pleasant, and from there to who knows where, good ol' Branksome has been a second home, and I'll never forget those who made it so. To all my friends from fruit loop necklaces to white dresses, to the (completely insane) sisters I never had, you made this a wild ride, here's to the laughs, the singing, the dancing, and our time together. Thanks to the teachers who inspired and motivated me, to my parents, Mommy, for your honesty and selflessness, Daddy for all your advice, corny jokes and CD's. You both were always in my corner, and gave me a kick when I needed it. I can't thank you enough for your support, your criticism, and all the sacrifices you made. Where do we go? Who knows, but each day gets better. -John Legend Cheers! To Purple Reign and whatever comes next.

student life

Campbell

Jane Deeks, Frances MacLellan,
Tori Chippindale, Carol Drumm

"To the Purple ladies with the most clan spirit who can KinBall better than they can walk- I am so proud to be your Chieftan and Keep Campbell Pride Alive!" Jane

Douglas

Kate McLaughlin, Nicky Powell, Charlotte Doucette, Melissa Argiros

"Spirit, Spice World, intramurals, pink flamingos, clan lunches, Yay Douglas ladies. Pink does more than you think!" Love Kate

MacGregor

Inta Gaikis, Brady Henderson,
Caroline Gaikis, Michelle Phillips

"To all Macgregorians who came out to intramurals and clan lunches: IT WAS A BLAST! To Brady and Caroline: thanks for all the help I couldn't have done it on my own." Long live yellow, Inta

MacLean

Dalana Parris, Ophelia Lau,
Meredith Mellon, Alison Gray

"Not one thing can stop us, and trust, nothing will
The spirit inside us won't let us keep still
When you see us coming, just move out the way
'Cause everyone knows MacLean's here to stay!!"
Much Love, Dalana

McAlpine

Catherine Tennent, Tori Carl, Paula Hicks, Ruth Young

"The Green Machine: Thanks to all you girls in green for keeping it going. We tore up intramurals, swept up BB squad and rolled through Clan Lunches, and next year we'll be back, because you know CAN'T STOP US!" McAlpine Love, Cat

McLeod

Ella Rowan, Liz Soutter, Aja Ison, Amanda Cyr

"My fellow McLeodians, it has been a fruitful year. Orange you glad you were in McLEOD?" Ella

Ross

Lauren Ing, Iris Coates McCall,
Rachel Tobin, Claire Potvin

"Ross girls: I've never met girls who can play kinball harder, dodge balls better or yell louder. You make me proud and I have no worries for you next year; you'll represent; show what you got. Ross is boss."
Lauren

Scott

Paige Sain, Hubie Yu, Madison
Sain, Lisa Zhou

"Scott is not just is not just a boys name but a Clan that has redefined the color blue. You ladies dodged balls, carried cans and cleaned that grade 9 hallway in a way that I have never seen before."
The Scottish would be proud.

Residence Dons

What a year it has been! Residence is always an exciting place to be and all of the wonderful Branksome Boarding Girls made it extra memorable for us. There was never a dull moment from the first day the new girls nervously arrived in August til our tearful goodbyes in June. Everyday we were here to welcome you home from school, help you with your homework, and watched as you grew and matured into the lovely young ladies you are today. We loved all the chats and hugs and heart to hearts we have shared and you always knew how to make us laugh! A special big thank you goes out to Jam and the Res Council for making this year so much fun. Remember that whether you are a Blue Whale (whoosh!), a Black Dolphin (black is the new black), a Red Starfish (H-O-T!), a Green Frog (super spies), a White Turtle (so sporty), or a Yellow Sunfish (nice flag glubb) - your Family Don loves you and wishes you all the best in the years to come - good luck!!

Heads of House

Sherbourne - Emily Tyen

Sherbourne house is always well known of its maturity, excitement and fun. There are only twelve people living here, yet it is the warmest house ever. As the head of house, my responsibility is to organize events, get involved with the res council and most importantly to give everyone the feeling of home-away-from-home. Without the dons' help, enthusiasm of res council and participation of res students, I wouldn't have enough ideas and creativity to come up with events. Thanks to all and I look forward to the most amazing year in residence!

MacNeill - Janet Hong

I remember myself two years ago when I first entered the residence. So much has happened, and during that transformation from the 'new girl' to the 'old girl', I have grown up to be a head of house in MacNeill. MacNeill house is one of the most significant houses among Branksome residences. Not only the largest number itself stands out, but the people who form this community is very unique, full of energy, and most importantly, very supportive. I have learned a lot about the responsibilities and the duties as a head of house; however, if one asked what I remember the most in pursuing this experience, I would mention that I've learned to love and to be loved. Through many residence, family and house activities, all of us learned to share our lives with each other. I'm so glad to have this year ended with such good memories and thoughts that I will never forget. Thank you, MacNeill girls, who made everything happen!

Ainslie - Sharon Leung

I can't believe that it is already my last year here in the Branksome residence! It was great being the Head of Ainslie House. I think everyone in Ainslie enjoyed the year as much as I did. Thank You to all Ainslie residents - you have made this year so special. I will never forget the laughter and craziness that we had this year. Also a Big Thank You to the Res. Council - It has been such a great time, you girls are fantastic and we have finally made it! HURRAY! Best Wishes to the Res. Council and Ainslie residents 2007 *AINSLIE ROCKS* YEAH!

"As the sun colours flowers, so does art colours life." This quote by John Lubbock, Sr. has highlighted the goal of the Art committee- to bring colours to residence life. This year has been great and both of us have so much fun being part of the residence council, decorating the residence during special events, making birthday boards... We are glad that people all have a good and enjoyable time during these festive moments. Hopefully, we could have a residence fashion show before the end of the school year and bring more fun and laughter! Last but not least, a GREAT BIG THANK YOU to everyone in the Residence council and all of you who helped out in any way!!!

Luv,
LoRrAiNe and SoPhie

Although some ideas, such as the unbelievably sweet marshmallow cake, didn't go over so well, most events were huge successes, especially organizing the Mid-Autumn Festival Dinner which was so much fun. The Peking duck and dumplings went like hot cakes! The kitchen staff, especially Bryan, deserves a shout out for being so cooperative and still accepting our food order forms days late. Lea will always remember the Tuesday nights running across the street to make it in time for our 9 pm meetings which lasted in to the wee hours depriving her of much needed sleep. She blames these meetings for her poor math grade. Cherie, being our Mac (the largest residence) food don has built strong arm muscles from carrying numerous amounts of food boxes into the kitchen every Thursday. At least she is staying fit. Andrea thanks BH for her drastically improved domestic skills. She is queen of getting stains off plates and there is not a single dessert or Chinese recipe that Andrea doesn't know. Her future husband will be very glad. Finally, we hope you had as much fun eating food as we had organizing it.

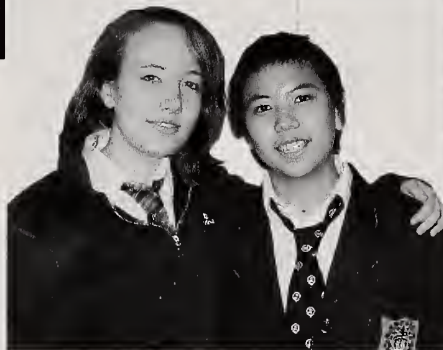

Being an entertainment junior don was definitely not a joke. I think it was one of the hardest things I've done in a long time. Planning fun activities for the girls and making sure that they run smoothly took so much out of me. I remember the effort Merrick and I put into planning those activities with the neighboring boys schools, UCC and SAC. They were just so... frustrating! We had such great ideas, but the boys were just not ready to open up. Ugh, we just can't depend on them. Still, we started off with a great activity- CASINO NIGHT! But I was at the verge of breaking down when they almost cancelled on us. I still remember how freaked out I was. Thanks to Merrick and Ms. Cragg, I didn't just jump out the window. What would I have done without you? I love you both. I'm going to miss it being an entertainment JD. For sure, it was difficult, but it was so much fun! I won't forget any of my experiences this year.

Junior Dons

This year went by so fast, it's unbelievable! As sports junior don, we enjoyed the organization of all the family challenges, from Kin-ball to obstacle course, and water fights and ultimate Frisbee on the lower field. We particularly want to thank Ms. Astle for your big support, and ideas! Residence council, we will remember the haunted house forever and ever. It was awesome! You guys were such amazing companions. All of the residence girls; thanks for being enthusiastic and supporting during challenges and throughout the year! We hope you had fun and enjoyed fighting for your family points! We enjoyed to see you so exhausted and sweaty, but you were so passionate about the candy! To Mara from Ioana: I love you, I couldn't have done without you! I hope you will have an amazing Graduating Year!! To Ioana from Mara: you are such a hilarious partner! I'll for sure remember you. Good luck! The year has been fantastic and we hope that the sports spirit will continue to brighten up residence life in the future!

One year of being a Junior Don for Internationalism for you amazing Girls (u know who u r!!!) has already passed? Wasn't it just yesterday that we were sitting on the couches in Ainslie House having our interviews? Time flies by and you all know that but this year was a truly amazing and memorable one! Pamela and I had super cool and soo interesting : P presentations for u guys and Halloween and the haunted house were crazy! Let me see, what else can I remember: Thanksgiving Dinner, Holiday Dinner, Chinese and Korean New Year, YEY!!! But the most amazing part of being a Junior Don was the Rez Council!! I LOVE U GUYS!!! I will miss you soo much! Fun TIMES! Also a big thx to Miss Ranieri who helped us organize some international events! Last but not least, I think it is worth mentioning for all those Day girls who don't have the chance to live in our AMAZING Res, which countries we as a whole represented in 2006/2007: CANADA, MEXICO, VENEZUELA, TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO, THE BAHAMAS, RUSSIA, CONGO, SOUTH KOREA, CHINA, SINGAPORE, HONGKONG, TAIWAN, and GERMANY!!! what an amazing group u are

The Diploma

By Meredith Li, with thanks to Alice Cary

We've graduated, they say, and you think you have finished, --
But before you rejoice with spirit undiminished:
Here's reason to celebrate, and reason to grieve, --
Here's fiction to recognize, and truth to perceive, --
There lies much more hardships and more mountains to climb;
Be wise, and prepare for what is coming in time!

Open your eyes: see where the turning road goes, --
Alone to the unknown of tomorrow's new woes, --
And see the arduous tolling in the hot fields, --
The labour and struggle to produce these great yields --
It is only a pause now -- not yet near the end;
You must keep going onward, I recommend.

Nay, call me not glum, and fear not to be glad;
This moment you deserve is yours to be had, --
To receive the diploma, a paper thin sheet,
In an occasion that is both bitter and sweet.

Meilene

Our treasure and pearl.
You are bright, beautiful, thoughtful, and talented.
Throughout the years, you have always brought such happiness and pride.
With skill, courage, determination, and perseverance, continue to pursue your hopes and dreams and goals.
Best wishes on your pathway to success.

Love
Mama & Baba

Robyn,

You never cease to amaze us...your overwhelming sense of determination, your persistent quest for righteousness and your relentless inquisitive nature only begin to describe the Rimsky we so love and admire.
We are bursting with pride as you begin a new chapter in your life.
Never relinquish your passion, goals, and dreams.
We love you!!!

Mom, Dad & Dan.

Dearest Katja,
You are our sunshine and we are so proud to have a daughter and sister like you.
We had our first political discussions as you just turned four on the way to the kindergarden.
During the years you got more and more interested in politics and history and we hope you go on like that, because it is a part of you. It was so hard for us to let you go in summer 2005 and we miss you so much.
Canada is so far away from Germany, but now we know it was the best way for you to go.
You have grown into an amazing, lovely, young woman. Please sunshine, don't stop to live your dreams and never forget to relax from time to time.
Congratulations to you and Branksome. You have both worked hard and really did an excellent job.
With love and respect
Papa, Maike, Leonie und Mama

Congratulations!

In your 13 years at B.H., Christina you have grown and flourished in all aspects of your life. You know what friendship means and have reaped the benefits. Your constant diligence and sense of humour has served you well from kindergarten through the senior school and will guide you into a wonderful future. In the words of your deuxième maternelle teacher in Brussels, "tu es t-une numero".
Love always,
Mom, Dad and Julia.

Dear Zamara,

We are very proud of your accomplishments in the classroom including the hockey rink and the rugby field. Most importantly you've made some great friends you'll treasure forever. You have completed one of the most important and valuable stages of life; school. We wish you success in achieving all your goals during the next stage that awaits you.
Congratulations and love always,
Mom, Dad and Sari

Dear Paige,
 Your arrival was late by all standards and so when you did arrive your perfection took our breath away! Dr Cohen called you his baby of the week and Grandma named you Princess Paige the moment she saw you!
 What a surprise package you have been, though.. As a child your smiley face and constitution, didn't prepare us for the intensely, independent teenager who stepped up to challenges, and bravely forged ahead to accomplish whatever goal was set. It took a family night of viewing videos from your early years, to realize that beneath the pixie face and smiling eyes of a little girl, that your independence and strength of character were always there.
 You have earned your place in the world Paige, as a young woman who though small in stature, has enough independence and strength of character to set the world on fire.
 As your parents, who had you to help us learn the ropes, we love you lots and respect you more!
 From Madison, I love you Paige and just wait, you will miss me!
 Love all the way to the moon and back,
 Dad, Mom and Madison

Les - We waited so long for our third bambino but you definitely made the wait worthwhile. You have been the special glue that has kept our family tightly bonded. Your sense of humour, your laugh, your constant care and thoughtfulness for others are special gifts. We are so proud of your natural enthusiasm and ever present organization which often seem to lead you to exciting challenges and opportunities. That wonderful, quiet confidence and your contagious spirit and positive attitude inspire all of us and make it a joy to be with you.

We look forward to great anticipation for your future - don't be robbed of a moment's joy wherever your road you may lead.

All our love - Mom, Dad, Scott and Katie

Dear Becky,
 Congratulations on becoming a Branksome graduate. We are so proud of all your accomplishments this year, including your volunteer work and participation in many aspects of Branksome life. Moving from Belgium in your senior year and adjusting to "rez" life is no easy feat. Your hard work, positive attitude and dedication will no doubt set the stage for a successful experience as you prepare for University.

Love Mom and Dad.

To our dearest Alison: We write this with the most bittersweet ache in our hearts. Sweet because we love and adore you so and it is with such tremendous pride and joy that we see you graduating, about to head into the world with that infectious joy of life that is so much a part of you. This is as it should be. Bitter because it has been so grand to have had you with us all these years, loving it all so much, and now we must let you go. With the greatest love and admiration, Mum and Dad

Dearest Anna

Our dear, sweet little girl has grown up so quickly and matured into a beautiful young lady. Congratulations on all of your successes. We are so proud of you and have such great hope for your future endeavours. As you move on to university, life at home without you won't be the same (maybe a little quieter, maybe a little tidier). You mark a milestone that for your Mom and I is bittersweet. Remember that you can accomplish anything that you set your mind and heart to.

Lol always Mom, Dad, Michelle, Lauren, Amy, Scout, Lucy and Charlie

"That was then...!
1993"

Dear Alex:

So, where did the time go? On September 8 1993 we dropped you off for your first day of Junior Kindergarten. You ran to Mrs. Medland gave her a big hug and then headed straight to the "Reading Boat". Not to read mind you, but rather to "row the boat away". That spirit has never left you. Remember - ballet, finger-painting, Mrs. Sneezepickle and the "Bird Book". You loved the birds and so began your love of animals!!! Remember the Teddy Bear Picnics, Grandparents' Day and those Year End Parties we had at Sandringham!! And as each year passed, with each fabulous teacher, you learned, you cared, your spirit soared and by Grade 6 you were truly ready to CROSS THE ROAD. Then the really "hard stuff", as you put it, began. We struggled through Grade 7 and 8 and then you found your passion - ROWING!!!! As you ROWED your way through Grade 9 to Grade 12, we watched you become more confident and to focus on and enjoy all the things that life and Branksome Hall had to offer you. Remember the late nights, and the very early mornings...projects due, studying, medals at the Rowing Regatta's, Father- Daughter Dances, the ROUT (and those crazy "get ups"), the formals, Costa Rica (we know that was a special trip for you) and all the wonderful friends you made over the years at school that we know you cherish so dearly. So now it is "007" and Graduating Year is finally here. We see our daughter - now a young woman - who is ambitious about life and positive about her future. We are truly blessed!!!! Remember the words of Emerson: "reach high, for stars lie hidden in your soul. Dream deep, for every dream precedes the goal." Your "ROAD" has been well traveled. There are many good miles still to go..... "KEEP WELL THE ROAD" and you will reach your goal!!

Love Always, Mom and Dad

"This is now...!"

succeeded and excelled at every academic and athletic endeavour you attempted. Your quiet sense of humour, and debating skills kept us all on our toes.
We had a hard time just trying to keep up with you
- and can't wait to see what new challenges you set out to conquer.
May all your dreams come true!
We will miss you, but know always, that we love and support you.

Jackie,

We wished upon a star
For the kind of daughter that you are
An old soul for sure
With good intentions so honest and pure
From that little girl in pigtails to the high school
Graduate that you are today
Never being a follower
But leading all the way
There's not a moment that goes by our side
That we don't feel an enormous sense of pride
Jackie, you deserve only the best
Of course you know all the rest
We love you
We're so proud of you
And, can't wait to see what lies ahead
in the future for you.

We know it's going to be great!
Congratulations, All our love,
Mom and Dad

Do you think we're going to celebrate this as your major academic achievement?....But listen, when you graduate from medical school I will be waiting with a bottle of cheap champagne because we all know writers can't support themselves. Please Emily, I can't live in our basement forever.

Love Colin

Emi: Clear from the day you sang the Jamaican Anthem - this was the school for you! Where else could you have dominated the music underworld of the locker room, talk basketball with English teachers and do brilliantly in school? You found an extended family at Branksome and a way to be yourself. To the moon and back, always.

Mom

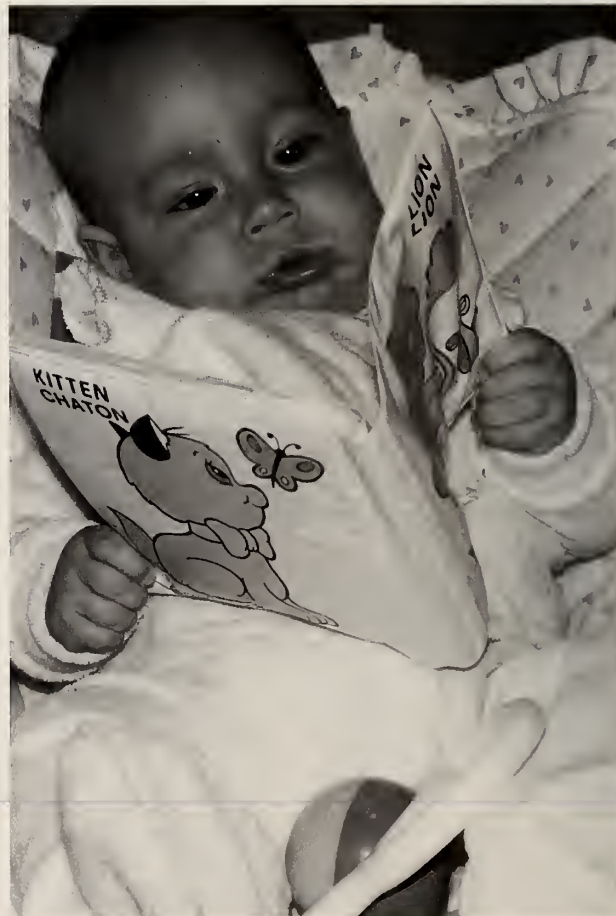

Dear Emily:
Shoot the ball!

Love Zack, Gramps and Kobe

Congratulations Emma!

You will not remember the first day we left you at Branksome's doorstep in Grade One, but we will never forget it. It seems like just yesterday and here you are completing Grade Twelve. You have matured and learned both to think and speak for yourself while demonstrating common sense. You are a gifted public speaker and when you are not speaking, we can find you either singing or listening to your eclectic music. You will always be our pride and joy. Of course, we are also proud of you for sampling everything you could: ballet, gymnastics, swimming, pottery, acting, tennis, karate, boarding, skiing, instructing and coaching to name a few. I know this is just the beginning. However, a cautionary note, as this is only Phase One of your education and in moving on to University, please remember what Oscar Wilde said: "Education is an admirable thing, but it is well to remember from time to time that nothing that is worth knowing can be taught".

We adore you.
Mom and Dad

Congratulations Emily!
Love Mom & Dad

"Avery, congratulations on your great achievement, and all the success you've enjoyed at Branksome. All the best for the next stage of your life from your proud and loving family. Love, Dad, Caroline and Hugh."

Ashleigh,

We are so proud of all the accomplishments you have achieved, both in and out of the classroom, during your school years at Branksome Hall. It is amazing to see how much you have flourished academically and grown and matured as a person during this time. You are now ready to move into the next stage of your life and we wish you every success in your future endeavours. We know that whatever you choose to do in life, you are well prepared and will succeed. Congratulations on your graduation!

Catherine, you are a beautiful and intelligent woman and a first-rate sister. You're leaving a place you love, but you're heading into a bright, mysterious future, and I know I will continue to be awestruck by you. Wherever our respective destinies take us, I will always be with you. Cheers Cat, God-speed.

James

From the moment you were born you have been an exuberant, beautiful presence and have continued to captivate us. You are smart, thoughtful, generous, gregarious, enthusiastic and loving - this we know first hand and through the observations of others. We are so proud of who you are and what you have accomplished and are looking forward to watching you continue on to new challenges. You Go Girl! Love, Mom & Dad

Dearest Elizabeth,
Many Congratulations on your graduation from Branksome.
Only yesterday you were a shy little girl and now you are a beautiful, confident and wonderful young lady.
We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments.
Always keep your amazing sense of fun and your keen sense of humour.
Lots of Love,
Dad, Mum, Jonathan, Melissa, Anthony and Kevin

Dear Frances,

There you were, charging across the beach, happy and enthusiastic with Life. Today, I see you with the same enthusiasm and joy getting ready to take on the next stage of life. You have so many talents. It has been a joy to watch your blossom and excel in the challenging and supportive environment of Branksome.
Most of all, I have appreciated your support to your younger sisters and your insight, your sense of humour, your warmth and love. I will certainly miss you at home. It has been such a pleasure to be your mother. But go on, girl
! Charge out there ! Take that smile and that passion and make this world a better place.
Congratulations on your graduation and I wish you all the best in life.
Mommy. (and p.s., so does Daddy – you know!)

Dear Erin,

Congratulations on your many accomplishments, both in and out of school. It has been our pleasure to watch you grow and develop into the wonderful young lady you have become. We are very proud of you and love you very much. We wish you every success in the future, and may all your dreams come true. Love Mom, Dad & David

Monique Miller
CONGRATULATIONS!!!

We are all very proud of the young woman you have become, since your start in Grade 7. You have accomplished great success through your dedication and determination. Continue to soar like an eagle, and keep well the road.

God bless, lots of love always,
Mom, Dad and Zechary
Hugs and Kisses

SHARON,

Congratulations on your graduation, we are so proud of you. Your hard work and determination have paid off. Our decision to send you to BRANKSOME is correct. BRANKSOME has given you the best preparation to your future challenges. Whenever you are, our love, support and best wishes go with you, keep well your road. You are always in our hearts.

Love always - Mom and Dad

Charlotte,
Watching you grow into a beautiful young woman has been an enormous joy. You are intelligent, generous, honest and loyal. Mom will cherish the "Wicked" rides to school, the "grilled cheese" lunches with friends and the "Studios Starbucks" sessions. Dad will treasure the father-daughter extravaganzas and the great debates about law. Ethel will miss your support and your clothes!

We are so proud of you and love you to pieces.
Mom, Dad and Kathleen

Tor,

Congratulations! It is hard to believe that you have completed your time at Branksome. We are so proud of the person you have become. You are amazing! Always remember, wherever you go and whatever you become, you will always be our little Pokey,

Love always,

Mom, Dad, Sarah, Pierce and Shamus

Sarah

Tu es comme un tableau qui avec le temps dévoile peu à peu tous ses sens et ses secrets. Tu es synonyme de joie, tendresse et sympathie mais aussi fermeté, ténacité et intégrité. Tu es de ces êtres qui rayonnent par leur simplicité, leur intelligence et leur charme et qui propagent du bonheur autour d'eux. Nous sommes des parents gonflés de fierté... que la chance et le bonheur t'accompagnent pour la vie !! Petit coin de bonheur, on t'aime !

Dear Arpita (Nabila),
You are leaving school and going to embark on a new and exciting life at university. We want you to know that we are very proud of your achievements and we are confident that you will do well in life, wherever you go and whatever you choose to do. You have grown up to be a wonderful person and you will always have all our love, support and blessings.

Amma, Abba and Ishita

My dear daughter

We are so grateful to God for giving us a daughter like you. We are very proud of all your achievements. Your persistence and interest have been the key to reach your goal. Branksome has changed your life for the best, there's no doubt about it !! Congratulations to you and to your teachers. You both worked hard to achieve your successful results.

With love, Dad and Mum.

Leah Semple

Leah we are so proud of you and all your accomplishments at Branksome. You have worked hard. Congratulations on your graduation. All our best wishes for a bright future. We will always be there for you. Love Mum and Dad

À notre très chère princesse Laurence,
You are about to 'dive in' beyond Branksome, setting course on a wonderful journey. You have already accomplished so much, and many words come to mind when thinking of you: autonomy, good-nature, audacity, resiliency, endurance, empathy, selflessness, trustworthiness, leadership, kindness, volunteering, strong judgment, street-smart, ethical, inquisitive, world traveler, current-affairs savvy, analytical, ingenious, engineer, mathematics, science, troubleshooter, varsity teams, rugby, advanced scuba diver, snowboarding, wakeboarding, coureur-des-bois, dog lover, Camp Kodiak, Snowhawks, SHAD Valley, International Youth Fuel Cell Competition, Branksome residence, and green!
You have brought us pride and joy through your spirit and accomplishments, in the classroom and beyond. Your wit, personality and hard work will make you a well-rounded leader, whether as a mechanical engineer or in any profession of your choosing.
You are compassionate and faithful as a daughter, sister and friend. Nous comptons sur Simon et toi pour conserver votre fierté et héritage culturel canadiens-français. You have a limitless future ahead of you. The World needs more Laurence Rivards.
Affectueusement,
Maman, Papa, Simon et Grands-Parents

Zoe Share

Congratulations Zoe,

You are now a Branksome graduate. All you have accomplished has prepared you well for the years to come.

We are very proud of you and we know that your strong-willed independence and concern for others will take you far.

Lizzie:

Congratulations princess! It's hard to believe you stepped through the doors of Branksome 12 years ago. I've watched you grow into a strong, independent and creative young woman. From the show ring to the classroom, your accomplishments have been remarkable. You've made some terrific friends; keep in touch with them.

Your hard work and determination have brought you this far. Follow your heart, wherever it may lead you. Don't be afraid to go after your dreams. I believe in you and know you will succeed in whatever path you choose.

I am so proud of you and will always be there to love and support you.

Love, Mom

XOXOXOX

Maggie Murphy
To our darling girl,

We are very proud of you and so thankful for every wonderful day we've had watching you grow. You are so smart and beautiful and funny and sweet. We are truly blessed to have a daughter as glorious as you. Thank you for all you've given to us and all you have shared with us. Who will ever forget the fabulous adventures of Sally Sears or the waitress serving kitchen crumbs, the leggy young girl flying down the court, baby bird, dress up or lazy summer days in Maine. You have accomplished so much and there is so much more to come. Stay true to yourself and never doubt your abilities. There will always be an "ear" for you here, so please come often. May all your dreams come true.

With love always and forever,

Mom, Dad and Jack

Stephanie Gobin

Wow, look at you now! You've grown into this amazingly beautiful, intelligent & confident young woman. Branksome has definitely bought out the very best in you.

Steph, from the day you were born, you've been our pride & joy. You seem to have been blessed with so many talents and abilities, except of course, the ability to keep your room clean!.

As you begin the next phase of your life, we look forward to even greater accomplishments. Wish all your dreams come true.

Love you more than words can express,
Dad, Mom, Linds, Jon (& Milo)

Eve Kordyback

Congratulations on graduating Branksome Hall with such distinction and style. Eve, when we think of you and the years leading up to this achievement, we see: world traveller - thinker - reader - friend - ado(red) - Sally - shopping in Buffalo - shopping anywhere - 'Evers' - Bob Dylan - lox platter $$$ - daughter - The Office: both versions - Mick Jagger - Chanel - Miss Eve - Stephen Lewis - messy room: tidy mind - our favourite palindrome - niece - "Shake Hands with the Devil" - a morning person?!?!? - Starbucks - Onda - off to Europe on $200 a day!

You are all of these smart, funny and wonderful things and we love you ...

Mum, Dad and Aunty Jude

Congratulations on graduating, Eve. Since we were little kids you have been the best role model I could have asked for; from teaching me ethics to more practical things, like getting a later curfew - you have always been there for me. I am really proud of you.

Lots of love,
Clare

Chloe Sullivan

Chloe, you will always be our "little" girl ... "Sugar and Spice, and Everything Nice!" Hold the spice and add your savoir faire sense of humour! We wish we could hold onto you forever, short of preventing you from graduating and leaving us for the Maritimes. "Don't go, Girlie! Stay here for University ... and you don't even have to clean your room!"

When we set our sights on your future, and gave you a kindergartner's choice, you seemed most at home in the halls of Branksome. I think you chose Sally Medland. Suddenly, we have all blinked, and you have grown up. In that "instant", we know you met a long list of challenges, and every day, owned this choice for yourself. These were not just any school years. This was a career. Your achievement of election as a Prefect went beyond the pinnacle! You must have been listening, way back when, as I suggested I liked red even better than green, and tried to place an order for the "other" kilt.

Chloe-Girl ... you were born with an unfathomable Soul, a Huge Heart ... and Wings. You were a butterfly, or an angel, or a unicorn for many Halloweens. We should have seen this flight coming. What we treasure most is that your soul has a heart. And your heart is your personal signature, written beautifully on the inside, and on the outside, as a constant reminder, signed and sealed, showing that you are a Survivor. Seventeen years later, you have earned this title twice.

Keep your flare for drama, and your abundant kit of wit; a magic combination of which dreams are made. I believe you will have an exciting future filled with many costume changes, from Shakespeare to SNL. We know you will always fly! ... And as often as you can, please fly home!

Congratulations! With All Our Hearts, Mom and Dad and Danny, Stormy & Tiger

Chloe,

I am so proud of you for all of your accomplishments. You are an outstanding young woman! When I watched your first performance in Kindergarten, your enthusiasm, radiance, and those big blue eyes were captivating! I knew you could be a good actress, and you have proceeded to prove that. As you move through your life, whether you play the role of a stand-out dramatist, a stand-up comic, a stand-for politician, or a stand-up mom, you will deserve a standing ovation! Congratulations on your graduation.

Your Loving Grandma

Congratulations darling Caitlin!

Over the past seventeen years we have watched you develop into an amazing young woman. We are all so proud of you for so many reasons – your quick intelligence, infectious sense of humour, enquiring mind, musical talents, creative spirit, compassionate heart, fierce loyalty, honesty, and inner and outer beauty. You make the world a happier, kinder and more loving place to be.

Take your bright eyes and dazzle the world!!

All our love,

To our darling Jennifer,
From the moment you entered this world, much earlier and tinier than expected, you have brought endless amounts of love, laughter, happiness and warmth to everyone whose life you have touched.

"What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us."

– Ralph Waldo Emerson

You began your academic career at Branksome in Grade 1 and now you are graduating and entering a new and exciting phase of your life. We know that you will bring sunshine and dedication to the journey ahead.

We are proud of you. A special message from mom, 'I Hope you Dance'!

Love as always,

Mom, Dad, Zachary and Tyler

Allison Carroll Goldman

Warmest wishes as you graduate. You have filled our home with your most wonderful Branksome friends, laughter, great times and your extraordinary energy. We are delighted that Branksome has been such an incredible experience, providing the environment for you to develop your passion for international relations, languages and community service. You are lucky that you thrive on lots of challenge, hard work and little sleep, allowing you to do the full IB, Chair the World Affairs Conference and record your jazz CD! You have thrilled us with your performances with the Canadian Opera Company, Canadian Children's and Youth Opera Chorus and Young Artists Performance Academy. Your compassion, ideals, intensity and commitment to making the world a better place are inspiring. We are excited for you as you start the next chapter of your life...but we will miss you enormously. With love, hugs and kisses,

Jana Jackson

Jana, in Pre School there was ballet and swimming classes, where you showed determination and a keen sense of excitement. Your skill at negotiating with me was done with respect and with that delightful smile of yours. As you grew older, your singing, drama and dance gave you confidence. Your love of travel in the past few years enhanced your view of the world, and new friends.

Jana, go confidently in the direction of your dreams and live the life you have imagined. We are your greatest fans!

We love you, God Bless.

Mom, Dad & Jordan

Elizabeth, Lizzy, Lil

What are we going to do without all three of you?! Think of us in Canada as you return to your European roots. Cut us some slack for all the 'words of encouragement' we gave you over the years. We will miss you, but while we miss you we will be proud of you, we will look forward to seeing you and to hearing your stories, and will watch you as reach your potential. You can, and will, make a difference. Knock 'em dead Mum, dad, Katie and Sarah

P.S. Molly will keep your bed warm for you

Adria Davidson
 Congratulations on your success! The six years at Branksome have gone by in a flash. We will remember all the; homework, essays, projects, speeches, research papers, lab reports, portraits, paintings, sculptures, portfolios and chariots that we thought would never get done, but somehow, some way they did. The days and (sometimes the nights) were long and the trips to school many. When you had the opportunity you traveled to South Africa, Italy and Greece, and beyond. Though your life at Branksome has come to an end it is only the beginning of the next journey. We are proud of all your achievements and look forward to many more!

Lots of Love from

To our Greatest Treasure:

Congratulations on surpassing and achieving all of our expectations. There was never a moment in time when we doubted your abilities as a great student and an even better daughter. You have always had the grace, courage and strength to accomplish your dreams and goals and we admire you for those abilities.

You have an inner strength and courage that is unfounded in both good and bad times. That strength and courage is honorable and we know that those traits are "yours to own" and be proud of now and always.

Thank you for your great sense of humor, your honesty and your wealth of nobility. You are indeed a wonder to both of us.

You have shared your dreams with us and we know that these will one day be a reality.

We love you, Pumple.

Mom, Dad (and Cleo)

Katie Worndl

We are so very proud of you, our little Kitty. You have followed in your sister's footsteps to Branksome and have benefited greatly. You are your own person.

As your parents we see you as an intelligent, athletic and beautiful young woman. I know your friends see you as someone that will walk the extra mile for them. You give them loyalty and trust and a real sense of uninhibited fun. We are so proud of your accomplishments. Everything you do is with dedication and responsibility. Whether you are stroking hard at 1500m or revving up the Mid Divs you always have the time to LOL with your friends. You are a volunteer, a hard worker

From the time you were a little girl you have attracted terrific friends. You have always been humble and have placed others first. You are a doer all the time. You are quiet when you are working hard. You are loud when you are having fun.

The greatest gift you have given us is to be your parents. It goes without saying that you have changed our lives for the better.

As you reflect on your time at Branksome we hope you can see how you have grown and matured. Good luck in university. We know you will do well. We are contemplating what life will be like when number two daughter is away at school...we already miss you. God bless.

All our love,

Mommy and Dad

Your biggest fans XOXO

It is with great pride and respect that our family congratulates you on your glowing record at Branksome Hall. It has been a pleasure to see you grow, mature and form your own opinion on life. Your art has especially delighted us as well as your ability to connect people in a very caring way. Teh Costa Rica trip was a highlight of your education and teh close bonds with the other girls is apparent. As a top athlete it is wonderful to see you as a team player in every sport. Your dedication, sheer strength and determination have stood you well. you have developed these life skills and will carry them onward in life. You are a wonderful person to know and love and you are ours.

Mom, Dad & Sophie

Janey Deeks

Congratulations. I know you have worked hard and the results speak for themselves. You have done so well academically and at the same time been keen and able to dive into many other activities. There are good friends that you have kept since kindergarten and new ones you have made. you manage to accomplish a lot and always have fun at the same time.

Congratulations again,
Love Mom

Katie O'Connor

What a joy to share your journey at Branksome these past four years! From the soccer field to the badminton courts, from the ice rink to the rowing course, you've shown yourself to be a positive and enthusiastic young woman full of desire and drive. Always up for a challenge, your positive spirit and sense of adventure fills us with pride and wonderment. Unflappable, care-free and full of fun, a committed friend, daughter and sister. You lead by example and show empathy and compassion to those around you. You are always ready to listen to others and to lend a helping hand. The pride you feel for your school inspires others and helps them appreciate their good fortune. Congratulations Katie, on your graduation from Branksome. We are proud of your academic and extracurricular accomplishments. We are grateful for the four fulfilling years you have spent at Branksome and for the wonderful friendships you have made. Best of luck and continued success. May all your dreams come true.

With much love,

Mom, Dad and Mattie

Dalana Parris

Dearest Dalana,

Just a few years ago you arrived, a tiny, alert, bundle of joy with eyes wide open to capture the wonders of the world; just a few weeks ago that you journeyed from Pickering to Branksome for the first time. Now, here you are, emerging as a beautiful, independent young woman, to face the challenges ahead with eyes wide open.

We are tremendously proud of you.

To the staff of Branksome, many thanks for the untiring support, excellent education and caring.

Congratulations dalanad ad may God continue to bless you!

Love,

Mom, Dad and Darnell

Sarah Eshani

Dear Sarah,

You have been our pride and joy right from the day you were born. We treasure each day that you grew to be such a gracious, beautiful, intelligent and kind woman. In our heart you'll always be our baby girl. It is evident to us that no matter what field you chose to proceed in, you and the educational Institution you attend will equally benefit. No words can describe the pride and gratitude that come from having you to love and cherish.

Congratulations
Rachel!

Our love and pride know
no bounds.
